

Gloria Montez Becomes Bride of Robert Funk

Miss Gloria Montez, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve A. Montez of 1627 W. 209th St., became the bride of Robert A. Funk April 18 at the Nativity Catholic Church. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Funk of 4708 Eastbook Ave., Lakewood.

The bride wore a silk organza gown, the scoop neckline outlined in embroidered lace appliques and seed pearls nation petals. The bouffant skirt fell over a hoop into a chapel train. A crown of lace leaves adorned with pearls secured her silk illusion veil. White orchids, lilies of the valley and stephanotis composed the bride's bouquet.

Miss Margaret Cordero, maid of honor, was attired in an empire pink chiffon gown and carried pink carnations. Attendants, Misses Connie Owens, Beverly Perazzo and Eva Dritz wore empire gowns of blue chiffon and carried bouquets of matching carnations. Teri Funk served as flower girl and carried a white basket filled with carnation petals.

Mr. Funk was assisted by Vincent Estopellan as best man and Larry Perazzo, Thomas Edwards and Larry Davis as ushers. Ring bearer was Samuel Bedolla, Jr.

The 300-guest reception was held at the Elk's Hall in Gardena and Miss Judith Ann Bishop was guest book registrar.

A wedding trip to San Diego and San Juan Capistrano followed the ceremony.

The bride was graduated from Torrance High School in 1962 and the bridegroom from Narbonne High School in 1963.

The young couple will be at home at 21724 S. Western Ave., Apt. 41.

Junior Square Dance Tribute To Husbands

"Swing your partner and promenade," caller Don Small told members of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club and their guests for the evening, their husbands, at a square dance held at the Woodman Town Hall in Redondo Beach.

The evening, which began with a potluck supper, was a special way juniors chose to say thanks to their husbands for their cooperation during the past year.

To make it an official "thank you," husbands were presented with Awards of Merit, for their evenings of baby sitting and their support of the club's philanthropic projects.

An authentic atmosphere for the dance was created by the International Fiberglass Co. of Venice who loaned the club members a corral of farm animals for the occasion. These farm animals will also be used at the New York's World Fair this year. Other items contributing to the country dance theme were spurs, boots, wagon wheels and plenty of gingham.

... Ann Landers

no way keep your fiancé from getting a good job.

Dear Ann Landers: Last night I went out with a 17-year-old kid I will call Ron. It was my first date with him although I have known him all my life. We were supposed to go to a party but it was cancelled at the last minute because the host got German measles.

Ron suggested that we just cruise around for the evening although I told him I'd rather go to a movie.

At a long stop light he took a pint of Bourbon out of the glove compartment and offered me a drink. I said, "No thanks." He took a swig of Bourbon and put the bottle down on the seat beside him.

I told him to let me off at a bus stop because I didn't care to be with a driver who drank. He got mad and snorted, "One drink does not make a drunk driver but if you're such a creep you can get out here."

He stopped the car (three blocks from a bus stop) and I got home on my own. Today it is all over school that I am a nut. Am I? —R.D.

Dear R.D.: If more girls had your brand of common sense—and courage—we wouldn't be reading so often about kids whose lives ended just when they should be beginning.

If what you did is considered nutty we need more nuts like you.

Ann Landers' frank and informative new book, "Teen-Agers And Sex" ($2.95), is now available at your book store.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

FLOWERED CROWN . . . Sodality prefect Dianne Sabio of Bishop Montgomery High is pictured here measuring a flowered crown which was used Friday as part of the annual May ceremonial at the school. Students formed a living rosary and joined in prayer in tribute to Mary during the ceremonial. The marble statue of the Virgin and Child is enshrined on the Montgomery campus.

Juniors Tag Fund For Scholarships

Proceeds from the Junior Woman's Club Spool and Bobbin Fashion Show have been tagged for the clubs scholarship fund, according to Mrs. William Faulda, president.

Following their slogan, "Youth Their Prime Interest," the club will present each of the four-high schools with a new scholarship.

Guests on Show

Mrs. Shirley Hazzlett, of 21244 Moneta, was guest on Art Linkletter's CBS-TV and radio "House Party" show Tuesday.
