Ann Landers

My 15-year-old sister helped herself to $11.00 and bought a lace blouse to wear with her black velvet skirt. She told me the blouse was on sale and she just couldn't pass it up. I promised I wouldn't say anything because she plans to put the money back as soon as she gets paid for her back baby-sitting jobs.

Mom hasn't missed the money yet but one of these days I'm afraid she might. My conscience is bothering me. Should I tell mom and get it off my mind? —LITTLE SISTER

Dear Little Sister: You did nothing wrong so what's bugging you? Snitching wouldn't make you feel better but it could make you feel worse.

One of these days I suggest you tell your mother that keeping money in a pickle jar makes as much sense as keeping pickles in a bank.
