

CalProp Sets New Dividend At 24 Cents

A stock dividend of 24 cents per share has been declared by the Board of Directors of CalProp Investments, Inc., according to Victor Zaccaglin, president of the firm.

Zaccaglin said the dividend is nine cents more than the last dividend paid. It will be paid to stockholders of record at the close of business April 21, 1964. CalProp is a publicly owned firm which specializes in the development and management of garden-type apartment buildings throughout Los Angeles. It currently owns and manages 747 units and another 186 units are under construction.

Offices for the firm are located in the Airport-Imperial Building, El Segundo.

Montgomery Latin Club Plans Trip

Chris Hunt, a sophomore at Bishop Montgomery High, will head a delegation from the school Saturday at the California Junior Classical League field day at the University of California at Los Angeles. Miss Hunt, recently elected historian of the group, will be checking into the background of all Latin students in the league—each school is allowed to enter five students in the contests. Students will register at Royce Hall on the UCLA campus at 9:30 a.m., then attend several contest sessions. Highlight of the field day will be the presentation of Plautus' "Menaechmi," a classical version of "The Comedy of Errors." Boys of the Cate School in Carpentaria will present the play. A total of 24 students from Montgomery will attend the all-day sessions. Put your heart into your vacation plans—and choose the location wisely. Heat and humidity add to the work of the heart, your Los Angeles County Heart Assn. says.
