Scout Trails

GSA Troop 2000

Girl Scout Troop 2000 recently celebrated their sixth birthday with investiture and fly-up at Normandale playground. Parents were welcomed by President Marty Lehr Jr.

The flag ceremony was led by vice president Dianna Brannon. Flag bearers were Dianne Moon and Becky Hooper. Color guards were Anne Cafarchia and Debbie Kanishero.

Brownies invested were Arlene Howard, Debbie Shamlian, and Laurie McWade.

BROWNIES becoming Girl Scouts were Joanne Trygstad, Cynthia Sload, Kitty Thompson and Lisa and Colleen Sutherland.

Girls receiving year pins were, Dianne Brannon, 8 years; Linda Clark, 6 years; Marty Lehr, 6 years; Denise Bently and Becky Hooper, 5 years; Dianne Moon, 4 years; Cynthia Sload, Kristy Moon, and Louise Burton, 2 years; Debbie Kanishero, Anne Cafarchia and Joanne Trygstad each 1-year pins.

A special award of thanks was presented to Dianne Brannon.

REFRESHMENTS were planned and served by Alice Clark and her daughter Linda. Table decorations by Joanne Trygstad and patrol consisted of our imaginary dogs, Sam and Cynthia, in their wedding clothes at the altar. These dogs are very popular at the spastic foundation and have been to Germany and New York.

The program of the evening included group singing, also an impersonation of the Beatles. A fashion show, "Roaring Nines," concluded the evening. Leader of the troop is Marty Lehr and co-leader, Louise Burton. The sponsor of Girl Scout Troop 2000 is the Harbor Lite Dog Obedience Club of Peck Park, San Pedro.

Torrance Market Executive Named

Ben Schwartz, executive vice president, Foods company Markets, was elected director at large of Super Market Institute at the 27th Annual Convention in Chicago.

Schwartz has long been active in SMI, an organization devoted to research and technical education on behalf of nearly 800 super market companies, operating more than 17,000 retail food outlets in the United States, Canada, and major foreign countries.
