NEW PRESIDENT . . . Mrs. Evelyn Reuben Schwartz is in charge of the Pen & Quill Hotel Restaurant in Manhattan Beach, succeeding her brother the late Robert Reuben. Active in the $2 million operation since last October, Mrs. Schwartz has announced the management staff and policies of the establishment will be retained. Continuing to assist the new president in supervisory positions are Neil R. Messick, Walter Sharp, Leonard Reuben, Betty Holland, Vito Quaresima, and John Giorgio.

CLOSE HARMONY . . . The Ink Spots, stars of song and rhythm, are currently entertaining at the Marineland Restaurant, appearing nightly except Mondays in the "Porpoise Room." The vocal stars, headed by Charlie Owens, top, wind up their annual engagement in the Palos Verdes Peninsula dining spot May 24.

'Bean' Comedy Names Louise Dowling Star
Louise Dowling will portray the lead role of Abby in "The Late Christopher Bean" to be presented at Crenshaw School for six performance beginning May 15. In the original production the often misunderstood Abby was played by Helen Hayes.

Colt Students Plan Pancake Breakfast Here
Members of the Carson High Civitan Club, an off-campus organization sponsored by the Civitans International, will hold a pancake breakfast Sunday from 6 a.m. until noon.
The breakfast, being held to raise funds for a Carson High student to participate in the AFS summer program, will be held at Main Street and Lomita Boulevard in the Market Basket store.
Tickets will be available at Carson High, or at the door Sunday. Students must raise at least $1,500 to send a student to Europe for the summer program.
