COUNCIL

Four future teachers were awarded $400 scholarships by the Torrance Council PTA at the annual May bunch, held Wednesday in the South High School cafeteria.

Mrs. William Poser, council scholarship chairman, presented the scholarships to Janice Shinkle, North High; Diane Worthen, South High; Michael Hatter, Torrance High; and Gloria Anderson, West High.

Seventeen year old Janice Shinkle plans to attend Pepperdine College or University Redlands to become an elementary teacher. She has been active in campus activities at North High, has served as a class officer, is a member of GAA, the debating squad, the Scholarship Society, and the Candy-Strippers. Her hobbies are piano, reading, and swimming.

Diana Worthen, 18, from South High, plans to attend San Jose State College. She was a student teacher at Newton Elementary school, a member of Tri-Hi-Y and the Order Of Athena (honor service group at her school). She has been active in Girl Scouts and has been a volunteer worker for the Torrance Recreation Department. She is a recipient of the Torrance Optimist Club's Good Citizen Award in 1964.

Seventeen-year-old Janice Hatter has been active in church, school, and Boy Scout activities. At Torrance High School, he has held school officers, and is outstanding in athletics, particularly basketball and track. He is a member of his school's honor service society, The Tartars. Michael plans to major in math at Whittier College.

Gloria Anderson is seventeen and plans to attend the University of California at Santa Barbara to become a mathematics teacher. She has held various offices, is a member of GAA and The Chieftian (honor service club) at West High. She is a life member of the California Scholarship Federation and has achieved seal bearer status in that organization.

Also on the program was the program booklet awards by Mrs. Robert Hagenbaugh and the publicity record book awards by Mrs. Perry Baker. Officers installed by Dale Wickstrom for the coming year were: Mmes. James C. Orr, president; Hiro Muranaka, Perry Baker, Paul Crossman, Mark Wright, Roscoe Anthony, Joe Ankerberg, Robert Hanes, and John Mathews, vice-presidents; Benjamin J. Hatfield, Ray Stewart, and Cecil Sutton, secretaries; F. G. Quattrini, treasurer; Robert Brigham, auditor; J. W. Cleveland, historian; and Vernon Terry, parliamentarian.

Special guest attending the brunch were: Mrs. Margaret Kemp, C.P.T.; Mrs. Margaret Collin, Dr. A. N. Posner, Dr. Louis Kaplan, Dr. R. C. Morton, and Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Hull, of the Torrance Unified School District; Mrs. Kenneth Watts, Board of Education; the mothers and the counselors of the scholarship recipients; and the principals of the Torrance schools.

FERN-GREENWOOD

Fern Greenwood PTA will hold its last regular meeting of this school year at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, May 21 in the Fern Cafeteria. Mrs. A. L. Campbell, past president, will serve as installing officer for the installation of the newly elected officers.

The school chorus under the direction of Mrs. Norma Barretta will present several numbers. A dental health skit entitled "The tooth, the whole tooth, nothing but the tooth" with apologies to W. Shakespeare, will be presented by members of Miss Rose Madrid's fifth grade class.

Following the skit, Dr. Arthur Berke, Torrance dentist, will speak on the subject of dental health and children. Mrs. H. S. Rogers, Hospitality Chairman, announced that annual Teachers' Luncheon will be held May 27 at the home of Mrs. Bert Lynn.

NORTH HIGH

The Homemaking department of North High School, under the direction of Miss Joan Trude, with Mrs. Evangelina Crews and Miss Barbara Strobel assisting, will present a fashion show at the May meeting of the North High PTA, 7:30 p.m., Wednesday, May 20 in the school cafeteria.

Using the theme "Carnival of Fashions," over 50 girls, plus several children, will model clothing for all occasions, ranging from sportswear to formals. The Industrial Arts department, Gary Parton director, will design the background scenery; Miss Dorothy Addleman's Business Education department will make the programs. An added feature is the performance by the Clown Club, directed by Miss Judith Dreiling. Also, the Industrial and Fine Arts departments will display exhibits on the covered patio.

To be installed as officers of the North High PTA for the coming year are: Mrs. William Cassida, president; Mrs. Gerald Cunery, Mr. E. H. McCusker, Mrs. Jack Till, vice-presidents; Mrs. A. J. Stilwell and Mrs. Marvin Richards, secretaries; Mrs. Fred Arney, treasurer; Mrs. John Mathews, historian; Mrs. James Carlson, auditor; and Mrs. Robert Brigham, parliamentarian.

COLUMBIA

Highlight of the Columbia PTA program, Tuesday May 19 will be the traditional fashion show. Setting for the 7:30 p.m. event will be the school cafeteria. Students in the Home Unit of Columbia School will model fashions they made as their sewing project of the year. Mrs. Mildred Singleton, Home Unit teacher will be the commentator.

Officers for 1964-65 will be seated during the brief business session with Spencer Welda, Columbia School teacher, as installing officer. Mrs. Jack Spurlock will accept the gavel for a second term and will be assisted by Mrs. Curtis Wood, program chairman; Mrs. Kenneth Polry, recording secretary; Mrs. Paul Kolleck, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Clois Jobe, treasurer; Everette Eaton, auditor; Mrs. Leonard Pulver, historian; and Mrs. Dean Thurman, parliamentarian.
