

Tetrault to Head BMHS Government

Don Tetrault will head the Bishop Montgomery High student body as student council president for the fall semester. Tetrault was elected to post during balloting last week on the Montgomery campus.

Other newly elected officers include: Jill O'Hara, vice president; Linda Bialecki, secretary; Tom DeFloria, treasurer, and Mary Kane, historian.

Class officers, elected Friday, include Jerry Agnew, senior class president; Carol Bean, senior veep; Edith Weidenkopf, senior class secretary, and Tim O'Keefe, senior class treasurer.

Junior class officers are Jim Walker, president; Maryterese Mastro, vice president; Debbie Roberts, secretary, and Todd Gulick, treasurer.

Leming Promoted

Edwin E. Leming, 4802 Deane Place, has been promoted to staff manager of the Prudential Insurance Co.'s South Bay district agency, according to Douglas M. Tinsler, manager.

Leming is a member of the President's Club, an honor reserved for agents who sell a million dollars of insurance in a year.

Mark Leamy will head the sophomore class, while Wanda Crosbie is the new vice president. Other officers are Marcia Pene, secretary, and Scott Kerwin, treasurer.

Montgomery's new freshman class will elect officers during the first month of school in the fall.

Diseases Decrease

One case of gonorrhea and syphilis was reported from the Torrance area to the Los Angeles County Health Department for the week ending May 16.

Summer Work At HC Will Begin July 1

Summer session registration is now under way at Harbor College and will continue through June 19. An enrollment of more than 1500 is anticipated based on initial registration.

Session dates are July 1 to August 11. Courses are tuition free to California residents, carry regular college credit, and are scheduled between 8 a.m. and 10 p.m.

Registration appointments are not necessary.

COLLEGE ROYALTY... Coronation of Emperor Noel Detrich and Empress Pauline Liebig was highlighted at the Statler-Hilton Hotel last night when students of El Camino College staged their annual Emperor and Empress Ball. Detrich and Miss Liebig were selected on basis of outstanding student leadership.

Whittlesey Motors to Open New Facility in Torrance

Whittlesey Motors, Inc., imported car center, reaffirms its faith in the future of the Southwest with the establishment of a completely new and expanded facility for the sale and service of imported cars at 2955 Pacific Coast Hwy., between Hawthorne and Crenshaw Boulevards in Torrance.

Modern in concept and design, the new home of Whittlesey Motors will offer the most complete facilities for repair and service in the entire South Bay area. Space will be provided under the more than 18,000 square feet of roof for a complete body repair shop, a drive-in garage with stalls for sixteen cars to be serviced at once.

In addition to the familiar glassed-in showroom, a striking innovation will be the landscaped, dramatically lighted, Garden Court area immediately adjacent where customers may browse among the displayed cars at leisure.

WITH THEIR recent appointment as MG-Austin Healey dealers, Whittlesey Motors now offers to their customers a full range of the finest imported cars to appeal to the most discriminating buyer, regardless of taste or budget. Whittlesey Motors have been building their enviable reputation for integrity for over 13 years in the Torrance area, for eight of them as import dealers.

From the prize winning beauty of the Volvo P1800S Sport Coupe, through the trophy winning Austin Healey, MGB, and Sunbeam Alpine, and certainly, not overlooking the superb selection of Volvo,

El Camino to Schedule Two Summer Terms

El Camino College will offer two summer sessions, one of six weeks' duration and the other four.

The first session will open June 17 and students enrolled in the college for the spring session will register June 15 from 1 to 3 p.m. and 5:30 to 7 p.m.

New and former students will register June 16 during the same hours.

Registration for the second session will be held July 31. Former students will register between 8:30 and 9:30 a.m.; new students, 10 to 11 a.m.

Girl Scouts Set Memorial Eve Service

Girl Scouts of the Los Angeles Council will decorate soldier's graves at Sawtelle Cemetery immediately after school Friday.

Persons wishing to donate flowers to the "Posies for Patriots" ceremony may contact the Girl Scout Harbor office at 320-4100.

"We hope the public will participate in this commemoration" states Mrs. C. Thiel Sullivan of the Hollywood-Wilshire Girl Scout District, which is spearheading the memorial this year.

Hillman, MG, and Sunbeam sedans, Whittlesey Motors covers virtually the entire price range in popular imported cars.

NEW AND USED cars are currently displayed at the new location during construction. Complete service facilities as well as new and used car sales, will be available at their Redondo Beach location, 1212 S. Pacific Coast Highway, until the new facilities are available.

Toastmasters Make Awards At May Meet

Torrance Toastmasters awarded first and second place honors to Don Lechner and Ross Potter at the May meeting.

Lechner walked off with first place honors and "most improved speaker" with his "Starlings and Their Cohorts" presentation.

An ad lib talk by Potter on "American Preparedness and the Strategic Air Command" was judged best on the impromptu round.

Toastmasters meet locally on the first and third Tuesday nights of each month. Visitors are welcome. Ed Curry, club president, may be contacted at FA 5-4753.
