City of Hope Benefit Today

Duarte, site of the City of Hope, and India-Pakistan, half way around the world from each other, will be brought together this afternoon when the South Bay chapter of City of Hope sponsors a benefit at the home of Judge and Mrs. John Shidler, 317 Camino de los Colinas, Hollywood Riviera from 3 until 5 p.m.

Highlighting the benefit will be an informal style show, "Fashions from Both Sides of the World and Hope for All." Miss Gloria Ward, who lived in India for three months in 1956 on the International Farm Youth Exchange program, sponsored by the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture and the National 4-H clubs, will present a group of models wearing the exquisite saris of the orient. Following this show, contemporary swim wear, provided by a Hollywood Riviera shop, will be shown.

Hors d'oeuvres and pink champagne will be served throughout the party.

Charles Wortham, City of Hope Chapter president and former Mayor of Redondo, and Rosemary DeCamp (Mrs. Shidler), screen and television actress, are chairmen of the hosts for the event.

Welcoming guests will be Mmes. L. W. Busby, Cecil Robinson, Daisy Geery, Mary Rohrer, Beacher Seals and Malcolm Waddell; Messrs. Auten Bush, L. W. Busby, Fred Benson, George Lowerre III, Lee Solomon and Malcolm Waddell.

Mrs. Waddell, who organized the chapter in 1953 with 20 charter members, will serve as general chairman. Under her guidance, the chapter has contributed $50,000 to the Durate Medical Center.

The donation for this afternoon's benefit will be used to further the humanitarian aims of the City of Hope, non-sectarian medical center at Duarte, dedicated to the eradication, cure and treatment of catastrophic diseases.

All South Bay residents are invited to attend the benefit. Accepting reservations are Mrs. Cecil Robinson and Mr. Charles Wortham.

'Most Men Would Take a Quick Look'

Dear Ann Landers: My husband belongs to a national organization which is well known. I will not mention the name of the outfit because I don't want to give all the members a black eye.

Last night my husband went to a meeting. He usually gets home from these meetings by midnight and I always wait up for him. By 2:00 A.M. I was worried sick and was sure that he had had an accident. I was just about to phone the police and start checking hospitals when I heard his key in the lock.

He said the fellows liked the entertainment so well they wouldn't let the girls leave. When he told me that two of the dancers arrived wearing only coats I was shocked. There was lipstick on his face and I let him know it. He claims the girls went around kissing all the men and that there was nothing personal about it.

My husband swore he didn't care for the entertainment himself but he was afraid to leave for fear the fellows would make fun of him. Do you believe it? Please help me straighten around my thinking. I am —DAZED

Dear Dazed: Yes, I believe it, and I hope you will, too. But let him know you are disappointed in him for not having the courage to walk out.

Most men would take a quick look to see what it was all about but one look should be plenty. Only a man with gutter-level taste would hang around and ogle a cheap little bimbo whose major talent is
