ALL WELCOME

A HAPPY SCOUT . . . Deborah Stewart (center) was about the happiest youngster in Torrance yesterday when she was told of an impending trip to New York for her and her mother as guests of Disneyland. Deborah, shown here with Disneyland youth administrator Dorothy Manes (left) and her mother, Mrs. James Stewart, will leave in Walt Disney's private jet with five other winners June 13. They'll stay at the Americana Hotel, get the red carpet treatment for two days at the World's Fair, and spend another three days touring the big city. The trip was awarded after a drawing during the May 2 Annual Girl Scout's Day at Disneyland, with more than 8,000 girls taking part in the activities. (Herald Photo)

WHO, ME? . . . Jack J. Lancaster, salesman for Lip-lard Realty, has been busy this week pointing out that he wasn't the man held as a suspect in the recent shooting of a Torrance police officer. Lancaster, who has lived in Torrance for nearly 10 years, said he had been the subject of inquiry since the arrest Friday of Jack James Smith and the report that he sometimes used the name "Jack Lancaster" as an alias. "It wasn't me, really," our Jack Lancaster pleads.
