Dear Sir: What's happening to the careers of Keely Smith and Jimmie Rodgers? They were so BIG just a year or so ago but now the Beatles seem to be getting all the play. Why? —Carol Lantz, Peabody, Mass.

Dear Loud Mouth: What are the phony names used by some of the stars when they travel, in order to avoid all the clatter of photographers? —Adrian Carlson, Hamilton, Mont

Dear Carol: Who knows how to figure out the fickle tastes of all you fans? Keely is coming up with Count Basie and his big band in the background (if they can work out the money end of it) and Jimmie just got set by Fox to shoot a movie, "Back Door to Hell." So maybe things'll start poppin' again.

Dear Adrian: Marlon Brando signs those registers as "Dr. Miles Graham," Greta Garbo is "Harriet Brown" and Sandra Dee and Bobby Darin occasionally sign in under their real names, Alexandra Zuck and Walden Cassotto. As for the rest, deponent knoweth not. In fact, deponent feeleth most of them love to be "pestered" for autographs!

Dear Sir: Have always read your column and thought you were a well-educated man but now I don't know what to think. How could you say Welsh is not a language but "a noise produced by a diseased throat?" I was born and educated in Wales. It is a beautiful language. The next time the Cambrian Society has a singing festival I will let you know. "Cymru am Byth!" —Mrs. Elizabeth Klein, Hollywood, Fla.

Dear Mrs. Klein: The same to you. But I didn't say it. I quoted a Welshman (and I'm sure he meant it kiddingly) named Richard Burton as saying it.

Dear Mike: Should I stop off in Las Vegas on my vacation trip to California this summer or are the dice ALL crooked? —Jake Hanley, Kingston, N. Y.

Dear Jake: The situation is well in hand and the weather is grand, so make it, man! Have I made my point?

HIGHEST OF 'HIGH FASHION'... Jack Greening British star of stage and screen hasn't missed a single performance of the daily bikini fashion shows and luncheons at the Mariner Motor Hotel in Lomita. Here Jack, who just completed a major role in "My Fair Lady," admires Linda Cummaro, from Zoyas, one of the lovely models who appear daily. Jack chose the Mariner to relax before going into another production and says this is one time postponement of shooting date will be more than welcome.

Eddie Baxter's Trio is tapping out danceable music in the Southwest again. Where? He is reigning nightly, except Sunday, at the "house of kings and queens," namely, the Plush Horse.

Manager H. D. Burg, who is building the Plush Horse into a "family affair" with "every guest a royal one" is enthusiastic about the public's reaction to innovations.

For example, if there is a bride-elect in your family and wedding details appear cumbersome, Joseph Martella at the Plush Horse will take charge from ceremony through reception. As that extra touch, Mr. Burg invites the bride and groom to be his guests at the hotel for their wedding night.

If June is the month, the word is hurry, though, because all Saturdays are already reserved.

Another "family affair" at the Plush Horse is the after-prom party. Four hundred high school guests were recently entertained there from 1 a.m. to 4 with music piped through the building into the Devonshire and Banberry rooms and into the lounge. An early morning breakfast topped an evening to be remembered. Incidentally, so parents may relax, these parties are strictly chaperoned and there are house rules which must be followed.

Tin soldiers, tottenhots, a Foolish Owl and a scarecrow are among the many characters to be featured in the El Camino College Children's Theater production of "The Patchwork Girl of Oz" which opens today and will run through Sunday.

Performances will be staged at 7:30 p.m. on May 28 and 29, at 10:30 a.m., 2:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. on May 30, and at 2:30 p.m. on May 31.

HERE AGAIN... Eddie Baxter's trio is entertaining nightly, except Sunday, in the Plush Horse Lounge. Latin, twist and smooth dancing—Eddie plays them all nightly.
