

Angels Nab Two Colt Dukes

Hard-throwing Steve Sibley and his Angel teammates combined for a pair of Torrance Colt League victories in recent action.

Sibley neared a perfect game in a 3-0 win over the Braves as he struck out 12 men, walked one and gave up only a single safety. Sibley did not allow a hit until the fourth frame when Charlie Richardson singled past the shortstop. The only other Brave to reach first base, Greg Shearer, was walked.

Larry Wing went the route and picked up the loss for the Braves.

It took the Angels extra innings to chalk up their second win. After eight innings the Cherubs pulled out a 12-10 decision over the Twins.

The Angels opened with Larry Vocke on the hill and led going into the fifth inning. Vocke and reliever Steve Melchert then gave up four walks and two hits and the Twins picked up seven runs and an 8-6 lead.

Doug Woodward and Dennis Stadler of the Twins both banged home runs in the wild fifth. Two walks and hits by Chuck Gandy, Steve Sibley and Stan Sibley finally put the Angels on top in the eighth frame.

Mike Bradley opened for the Twins but gave way to Doug Woodward in the fourth. Woodward exited for Bob Wood in the eighth. The trio allowed 12 runs on 10 hits and 8 walks. Angel hurlers allowed 10 runs on 7 hits and 10 walks with Melchert getting the victory despite giving way to Steve Sibley in the eighth.

Wayne Wood went 3 for 3 at the dish to lead the Braves in a 7-4 triumph over the Tigers. Toki Katsuki, Bill McCann, David Veldheer and Rich Gonzales each stroke single safeties for the winners.

Greg Shearer earned the win with a nine-hit, five-walk performance. Gilbert Cisneros, Daryl Masuyama and Bob Sharpe shared mound chores for the Tigers and allowed seven hits and eight free passes.

In a game called on account of darkness, the Tigers and Giants fought to a 4-4 deadlock. Brad Holmes threw for the Giants, allowing four hits and five walks, while Bob Sharpe gave up eight hits and one walk hurling for the Tigers.

Tordondo Ace Spins 'Perfecto'

Brien Donovan hurled a no-hit, no-run game and the league-leading Indians went on a three-game warpath that netted three wins to spark Tordondo Little League action last week.

Donovan, working his first Major League game, led the Yankees to a 4-0 triumph over the Tigers. Bruce Netherly belted a home run and a single to keep the Yanks ahead. Frank Williams and Ken Stickle split mound chores for the losers.

It was a fruitful week for the Indians as they swept past three opponents.

Jim Mullins struck out 17 men as the Indians waited to a 5-0 triumph over the Braves. Mullins also slammed a home run and Paul Miller picked up two safeties for the winners. James Weilin, Larry Bergeron and Terry Hulsey absorbed the defeat.

Mike Weatherman and Paul Miller teamed on the hill to pitch the Indians over the Dodgers, 8-2. Mullins came up with a two-run home and Ward Miller banged a three-run circuit clout for the Indians.

Weatherman picked up his second win of the week against the Yankees as the Indians notched a 3-0 decision. Weatherman, Paul Miller, Mullins and Tom Peterson wielded big sticks for the winners. Mike Greenwald and Robert Nelson took the loss despite a double by Bruce Netherly.

TURN ABOUT . . . It would have been only fitting if Pat Herring, 18, of 18823 Foothill in Torrance, had pulled up her namesake. But it was not the case and she wound up with a halibut on the half-day boat Westerner out of Davey's Locker in Newport Beach.

Red Devils Open Year With Wins

The Torrance Red Devils opened their summer baseball campaign with two non-league wins over the Anaheim Elks the past week.

Tony Guggiana went 4 for 5 at the dish with two doubles and a pair of singles as the Red Devils hung an 8-7 loss on Anaheim in the lid-lifter last Sunday.

Tom Jamison of Bishop Montgomery opened on the hill for Torrance and allowed only three hits and one unearned run in five innings of toil. John Wojcik, another former Knight ace, finished up and was touched for four hits and six walks.

On Tuesday night, the Red Devils banged 12 hits and notched a 10-3 decision. Steve Waters slammed two hits in three attempts and Bill Rothovic went 2 for 4 at the plate.

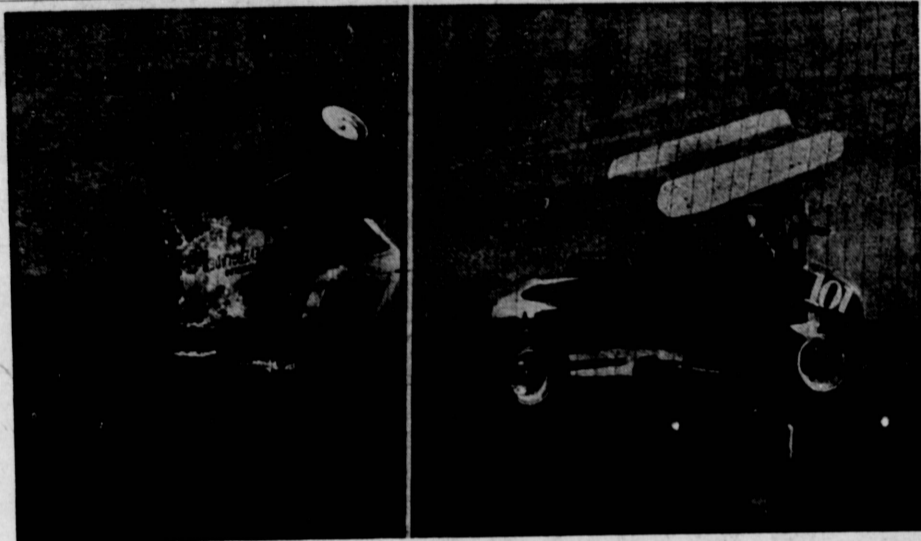

Steve Zell of Narbonne High hurled the first five innings and gave up three hits and one unearned run. El Camino College ace Don Coll finished up and allowed three hits, six walks and two runs.

Marv Porter Will Compete For Charity

Marvin Porter of Torrance, 1959 NASCAR national short track driving champion, has signed to compete in the 100-mile, 200-lap City of Hope "Race for Lives" at Gardena Ascot Park on June 6.

More than $5,000 will be up for grabs in the first annual NASCAR Grand National Championship.

Entries have also been received from Ron Hornaday of San Fernando, defending 1963 Pacific Coast champion; Lloyd Dane of Buena Park, three-time NASCAR Pacific Coast late model champ, and Eddie Gray of Gardena, another three-time late model titlist.

JUST IN TIME . . . Veteran driver Jim Roessler (right) recently jumped out of his car just in time to rescue Paul Taylor from his flaming modified car following a spectacular crash in a recent California Jolopy Assn. crash at Ascot Park. The modifieds will return to action this afternoon in a 25-lap main event on the half-mile Ascot dirt oval.

Two Races on Tap at Ascot

A double-barreled racing program at Ascot Park today will cap the long Memorial Day weekend.

This afternoon, it will be the California Jolopy Assn. stock cars, modifieds, hot rods and claimers traveling the one-half mile dirt oval.

The stockers and modifieds will have a 25-lap main event, the hot rods will race 20 laps and the claiming stockers will travel 15 laps.

Walt Price of Sylmar, winner of last week's stock car main, will again be favored. Len Fraker of Pomona and Cliff Garner of Los Angeles should also be in contention. Price, running a late model car, took the main event in 9:38.52 with Jim Blomgren second and Garner third. Jim Cook walked off with the trophy dash with Garner second and Blomgren third.

In the eight-lap heat races, Cook and Dick Powell came out on top.

Bob Coulter of Long Beach edged Phil Bowers of Los Angeles and Jim Greenhill for first place in the 25-lap hot rod main event. Greenhill snared the trophy dash with Bob Evans and Art Hayes trailing. In the heat races, Mel McIntosh and Steve Mesner grabbed the checkered flag.

Tink Elenberg, Benny Phillips and Vallie Engelauf finished one-two-three in the 25-lap modified main event. Elenberg and Jim Roessler waltzed off with eight-lap heat wins while Jay East beat Bob Simons and George Durade to the finish in the trophy dash.

More than 100 American Racing Assn. stock cars will go tonight at Ascot Park in a special Figure-Eight race.

Highlighting a tribute to the Indianapolis "500" Memorial Day classic will be a 100-lap main event.

Racing will begin with a trophy dash at 8 p.m. followed by the biggest "Speed Queen" girls' race of the year. Qualifying will start at 7 p.m.

Topping the point stand are Jerry Meisenzahl, Bob Hobbs, Ed Gahler, Ben Steele, Ed Sauer and Dennis Meisenzahl.

Ice League Will Adopt New Name

The Olympic Minor Hockey Assn. is no more. It has become the Bay Harbor Minor Hockey Assn.

The world Olympic was eliminated from the name since no reference is permitted that might lead the public to believe a sports team or league is related to the United States Olympic teams.

A non-profit organization which has been in existence for two years, the association rents practice and game time from the Olympic Ice Area on Western Avenue on Torrance.

Association registration will officially open in July, but any boy not over 18 years old interested in playing ice hockey should contact one of the team coaches on Sundays from 6:30 a.m. to 9:30 a.m. at the Olympic Ice Arena.

In recent action, the Bay Harbor Red Wings dropped a 9-0 Pee Wee division decision to a Van Nuys team. The Bay Harbor Maple Leafs also bowed to a Van Nuys club, 18-0, in a Juvenile Division contest.

Wardens See Exotic Game

Department of Fish and Game Wardens in Southern California have been getting acquainted with some pretty exotic specimens of wildlife lately.

Working with the State Department of Agriculture, these wardens have been visiting Los Angeles International Airport to inspect the wide variety of birds and animals imported into the United States from the far corners of the earth.

What are you doing about your son's nickname?

There's no excuse for the overweight, out-of-shape youngster—boy or girl—and the embarrassing nicknames they come by. Regular, vigorous exercise can help change fatness to fitness. What about your school's physical education program? Insist on a daily 15-minute session of honest exercise.
