

GERALD COPELAND
Recreation Director

Copeland to Head Staff At Parkview

Gerald Copeland, former University of Iowa athlete and a veteran of the Marine Corps, has been named recreation director at Parkview Village West, a rental apartment community for families with children.

The new development is located at 20707 Anza Ave., one block north of Torrance Boulevard.

Copeland has served as recreation director with the Los Angeles County Department of Park and Recreation. He is presently teaching in the Los Angeles school system. Copeland will assume his new duties at the end of the school year.

EXTENSIVE recreation programs are being developed in order to make full use of the special facilities included in Parkview Village West. Game rooms, recreation rooms, a gymnasium, a health club, and a workshop have been included in the new apartment development. Activities will be planned and supervised for children, teenagers, and adults, said Copeland.

Some of the events now scheduled include several lecture series on law, art, psychology, flower arrangement, home economics, and decoration. Adults also will have bridge, billiards, and dancing in the clubhouse.

THE TEENAGE center, to be operated by the teenage council, is now ready for use. Copeland will supervise the council. A pre-teen recreation area will be ready shortly.

Swimming instruction for all age groups will be provided in the Parkway Village swimming pool, said Copeland.

The apartment development is now open for inspection and may be visited during the week or on weekends.

Saxons Name Members of '64 Pep Squad

Sixteen North High girls have been selected as members of the Saxon Pep Squad for 1964-65, according to student activities advisor Harold Kloncky.

Cheerleaders are Amy Kawaguchi, Carol Tierney, Janice Moore, and Kristin Pederson.

Majorettes are Donna Alexander and Susan Tuffey. Barbara Cross, Juanita Ramirez, and Patricia Trolley were selected as flag twirlers.

Marjorie Babie, Sally Klauer, Linda Robinson, and Cheryl Wizer were named as song leaders for the year. "B" cheerleaders, who will lead rooters at Bee and Cee football and basketball games, are Susan Martin, Christine Peterson, and Roberta Peterson.
