STASSA DAMASCUS ... at The Mariner
 In TORRANCE Everyone Reads the HERALD

HIGHLIGHTS
 Helen Herrald, Editor

The Mariner is at the helm — be it outrigger, Greek trireme, luxury yacht, or even prairie schooner — of entertainment with an outsize "E."
 Chart your course for Greece, Tahiti or the U.S. plains and The Good Mariner will take you to port.
 Tonight, as every Thursday, The Mariner will bring the exotic island fare of Tahiti to guests.
 "Taina's Tahitian Dancers," presented by Taina Sherick and featuring Kimo, will perform authentic interpretations of colorful island dances.
 Music, provided by Jozef and the "Five Blue Gardenias" will background "The Otea," formal drum dance performed on Bastille Day; "Aparimas," Tahitian love story; "The Tamure," party dance; and the "Fire Knife Dance of Samoa."
 Monday nights The Mariner features the flame and beauty of Greece with the Stassa Damascus Helenic Revue. Three beautiful dancers, backed by authentic Grecian music perform the old and exciting art of belly dancing, "tummy twisting" if you prefer.
 This is a night for audience participation, too, in the "old world" dances of the island. As Larry Levin "idea man" at the Mariner says, "when Greeks hear music, Greeks dance."
 Chuck Wagon dinner and square dance nite hits the middle of the week, Wednesday. Bob Baxter does the calling for the twirlers around the pool.
 Other entertainment ports on The Mariner's course include superb dinners daily from 6 to 10 p.m. with chef Henri Corona serving gourmet dishes with the touch of the master; daily fashion shows and luncheons Monday through Friday; dancing nightly to favorite tunes with music by Maria Novotna and Robert Paul; and happy hour holds forth during the week from 4 to 6 with drinks at a happy price.
 The Mariner is even thinking of you Sunday morning with a champagne brunch. Know someone who drove 60 miles for the luxury of it.

SPEAK UP... Bob Barker, emcee of NBC's "Truth or Consequences" show, interviews Flipper the bottlenose dolphin at Marineland of the Pacific. The television program will tape two shows at the oceanarium Wednesday with the Marineland audience participating in the shows.

Dear Mike: If the new Broadway series is supposed to be the distaff version of McHale's Navy, how come Jimmy Boyd is playing such an important part in it? — Ray Brandenberger, Stockbridge, Mich.
 Dear Ray: Jimmy will be a regular in the show, all right, starting this fall. He plays a sailor accidentally assigned to a WAVE unit.
