Scout Troop 242 Explorer Post 242X

Explorer Scouts of Troop 242 and Explorer Post 242X will hold a double Eagle Court of Honor Friday evening at Christ the King Lutheran Church, North Torrance. Recipients of scouting's highest award will be Robbie Sjosted, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mel Sjosted, 2625 W. 182nd St., and Steve Eide, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy "Bill" Eide, 16222 Ardath Ave., Gardena. The honor court will raise the number of scouts to attain Eagle rank to 17 since the two scouting units were organized and sponsored by Christ the King in 1957.

Other program features will include: drum and bugle presentation by Explorer Post 379X; opening and closing ceremonies under leadership of Bill Alpenfels, Hawk Patrol leader.

Hosts will be three patrols: Scorpion, Raven and Jaguar.

Refreshment committee includes: Mmes. Kay Lizuka, Dean Hanson, Charles Mash-burn, Ich Yanagihara, and Zane Baughman.

Hollywood Reporter

By Mike Connolly

Dear Mike: What's the real lowdown on the Diahann Carroll - Sidney Poitier "thing"? —Allen Mullen, Wilmington, Del.

Dear Allene: The romance was off when Sid was up for his Oscar. Now that he's won it, it's on again.

Dear Mr. Connolly: Judy Garland is still something very special in the world of entertainment. Somehow, and I do not know why, she inspires a love that is rarely in these days. I have attended her concerts and it was pure rapture. —Alice Estold, Springfield, N. J.

Dear Alice: Judy is like a spoiled child who needs some knuckle-rapping every now and then. I'm no judge-and-jury but if a few applications of the rod would save this tremendously talented star I might be tempted to take on the job. How about you?

Dear Mike: What actor does the voice of "Mister Ed" in the TV series? — Mary Lou Cotter, Rockford, Ill.

Dear Mary Lou: Allen "Ricky" Lane, who used to star in westerns at Republic. But you call the studio and a few answers, hang up!

Dear Sir: What's this about Angie Dickinson doing "Art of Love" with Jim Garner and Dick Van Dyke? I thought she refused to do it because Elke Sommer gets a more important part in the picture, huh? — Gene Newell, Brockton, Mass.

Dear Gene: Her wardrobe includes a Russian broadtail suit and a chinchilla coat worth $50,000. The studio is giving them to her after she finishes the picture. Any more questions?

Dear Mr. C.: Is it true that Mary Markham signed a contract to do some work for a studio right in the middle of the religious ceremony that made her Mrs. Lauritz Melchior? I never heard of such a thing, and on her wedding day! No wonder people say awful things about Hollywood. — Mrs. Robert J. Hefter, Tallahassee, Fla.

Dear Mrs. Hefter: It didn't happen during the ceremony but afterward, at the wedding reception, Mary had to sign it before she left on her honeymoon. It is a contract to create TV and film "packages" starring her new client, singer Wayne Newton, who sang "O Promise Me" at the wedding.

Dear Mike: Can you give me the name of a Dick Powell movie-released in the late '40s or early '50s? It is a fine comedy about a deceased police dog (Dick) being returned to earth from the stars by the lion star-boss to find some earth criminals who had poisoned him. He came back in the shape of a private detective accompanied by a blonde (Claire Trevor?) who had been a horse. In addition to the title, who were the other principals and has it ever been released for TV? — Thomas Ehrman, Monterey, Calif.

Dear Thomes: You really put me through some hot-spell paces here but I dug it all up for you. The picture was a 1953 release, "You Never Can Tell," with Powell, Peggy Dow, Charles Drake and Joyce Holden. It has been on TV but you'll have to call your local TV station for that info because it's sold on a syndicate basis, not on the networks.

Dear Mike: Dinah Shore's name came up in a discussion with some friends. She has been married several times, true? She admitted on Ralph Edwards' "This Is Your Life," that she took some kind of strange "medicine" to get all that vitality, true? She was a protegee of Eddie Cantor, true? — Charles F. Overell, Wilmington, Del.

Dear Charles: True on all the counts except the "medicine." She doesn't drink or take drugs but does use vitamin pills and is most particular about her health, thanks to the influence of Bob Cummings.

(Mike Connolly welcomes all readers' questions but, due to the large volume of mail received, it may be some time before the answer to your question appears in his column.)
