Maureen Bereskin to Compete In National Forensic Finals

Maureen Bereskin, a North High senior, will compete in the national finals of the National Forensic League, to be held in Akron, Ohio, June 22 through 26.

Miss Bereskin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bereskin of Torrance, will compete with more than 300 students selected from high schools throughout the nation.

She will speak on the subject "Social Conformity in Thought," competing in the mixed oratory section of the contest.

Miss Bereskin qualified for the finals by winning the mixed oratory category at the Western Los Angeles district tournament at UCLA. She was the first girl in six years to win the mixed oratory section.

Heath Wins Degree

Edward J. Heath, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Heath, 2409 Faircross, was granted his bachelor of business administration degree in economics at St. Mary's University, San Antonio, Tex., in recent commencement exercises.
