

Hollywood Reporter

By Mike Connolly

Dear Mike: Is it really true that sweet young Connie Francis will play a bad girl in Metro's "Pizzas for Breakfast"?

WHAT in the name of heaven is happening out there in Hollywood? First Hayley Mills as a baddie in "The Chalk Garden" and now this! It's too disillusioning—Katie Purcell, Bradley, Ill.

Dear Katie: Connie's producer, Joe Pasternak, says yes. It's true, but she turns out to be a good girl in the end, just as Hayley does in her movie. "It's something like the tourist who smudged a mustache on the Mona Liza," Joe adds. "The trick is to wipe it off."

Dear Lumphead: Who said Elvis Presley is last year's Beatle? Elvis is this year's Elvis and he's next year's Elvis and for all the years after that he will still be the one and only Elvis, the King! As for you, why don't you go sit on a highway? The Beatles are only a phase. They couldn't spit-shine Elvis' shoes. Shame! — Mary Elizabeth Carrino, Livingston, N.J.

Dear Mary Elizabeth: You tell 'em, kid. As for me, I always find consolation in a crack by the late Ferenc Molnar, to wit: "When I get sick of the theatrical world, I go to the zoo. Only those who live among actors know what tenderness shines in the eyes of a tiger." I'm substituting "Elvis fans" for that "actors."

Dear Mr. C.: If the Beverly Hillbillies are so rich, why don't they buy a new car? — Mary Sinnott, Ontonagon, Mich.

Dear Mary: Deep down, I think the Clampetts have really gone Hollywood. For a real status symbol, nothing beats an old car, as witness Howard Hughes' 1939 Cadillac, Tony Curtis' 1934 Rolls and Bing Crosby's 1933 Essex.

Dear Mr. Connolly: How's about telling us what the stars did before they became stars? Maybe there's still hope for me and my humdrum existence! — Frank Monaghan, La Jolla.

Dear Frank: Keep improving each shining hour and maybe you'll make it. Dorothy Lamour was an elevator operator, Edgar Buchanan a dentist (and painless too, says he), Lucille Ball a soda jerk, Rock Hudson a mailman and truck driver, Bob Newhart an accountant, Rick Jason a baby photographer, and John Gavin a Naval officer with a post-service eye on a diplomatic career.

Dear Sir: I found a word in your column that is not in the several dictionaries that we have. The word is "discotheque." Would you have the time and kindness to explain it to me? If you will I will read your column more often in hopes of enlarging my vocabulary. — P. F. ("Pat") McCarville, Tampa, Fla.

Dear Pat: It's a nightclub where they play records for twist and watusi dancers and the like. Please continue reading: I need the circulation.

Hi, Mike: Help, aid and assistance! I have become involved in a controversy with a half-dozen relatives and friends and I think someone is putting me on. Have heard that Raymond Burr and Lee J. Cobb are brothers and that their last name is Jaycob. Yes or no? — Hilda Hunt, Pasadena.

Dear Hilda: They're not related. Burr uses his real name. Cobb's is Lee Jacoby.

Dear Sir: I would very much like to know why re-runs of such great shows as "Surfside 6" and "Hawaiian Eye" aren't shown on TV. I am sure there are others besides myself who would like to see them. They keep re-running "77 Sunset Strip" and "Cheyenne." Why are they so special. — Sylvia Parker, Peoria, Ill.

Dear Sylvia: The fans for the latter show are legion. They keep bombarding the networks and the studio (Warner Brothers) for re-runs. Get on the bombardment ball, girl!

Dear Mike: The last time I saw Martha Scott was in "Ben Hur." What's she doing these days? She's so lovely—Skippy Paletti, Glen Burnie, Md.

Dear Skippy: Martha has replaced Maureen O'Sullivan in "Never Too Late" on Broadway.

(Mike Connolly welcomes all readers' questions, but, due to the large volume of mail received, it may be some time before the answer to your question appears in his column)

Dr. Fishel Heads South Bay Staff

Dr. Howard E. Fishel, a Torrance resident, will be installed as chief of staff of the South Bay Hospital in ceremonies slated for June 19.

Dr. Fishel, an orthopedic surgeon, maintains offices in Redondo Beach.

He succeeds Dr. Reinhold A. Ullrich, an obstetrician, as chief of staff at the 150-bed hospital. Dr. Fishel and 11 other new staff officers will be installed in dinner ceremonies at the Pen and Quill Restaurant.

Dr. Fishel, a practicing surgeon in the southwest area since 1956, earned his M.D. from Temple University, Philadelphia, in 1950. He completed his residency at San Diego County General Hospital and at Shriners' Hospital for Crippled Children in Los Angeles.

Pyeatt Resigns

Post to Travel

Dr. Allen Pyeatt has resigned his post as president of the Los Angeles Optometric Society, largest optometric society in the country.

After three months in office, Dr. Pyeatt turned his gavel over to Dr. Mel Fox. He is leaving his practice temporarily to travel around the world with his family.

Scout Troop 886

Members of Girl Scout Troop 886 participated in a Court of Awards at the Hillside School Cafeteria. Mrs. Jack Cramer and Mrs. Robert Moser presented the year's awards.

The program included group singing and a display of historical flags of the United States. Parents were presented corsages depicting services volunteered during the year.

Girl Scouts receiving awards were Susan Angel, Sheila Bowman, Michelle Burger, Dawn Callen, Laura Carter, Carmelita Coleman, Denise Coleman, and Carolyn Cramer.

Also, Deborah Cramer, Nancy Crawford, Sharon Cresson, Karen Dantico, Karen Esposito, Sharon Green, Gail Hellings, Deborah Kagan, Kathy Kremen, Jeeden Lambert, Joyce Ann Moser, Tracey Orr, Barbara Perrone, Shirley Nilsen, Ann Marie Ryley, Kathleen Tuttle, Leslie Watts, Cynthia White and Kathy Williamson.

The Sign of the Arrow badge was presented to Dawn Callen, Carolyn Cramer, Deborah Cramer, Nancy Crawford, and Joyce Moser.

Mrs. Cramer received a 10-year pin and Mrs. Moser two one-year pins.
