FINAL TASK . . . With final exams ended last Tuesday, there remained but one task for the freshmen at Bishop Montgomery High—getting their own records of the first year in high school. Here, Bob Comstock, Cathy Griffin, and Janet Embrey trade memories in their copies of the GMHS year Excalibur.

FOR NEXT YEAR . . . Student body officers for next fall were elected last week at Bishop Montgomery High School. Shown here in an informal session prior to final exams are (seated) Mary Kay Kane, historian; Linda Bialecki, secretary, and Don Tetreault, president. Standing are Tom DeFloria, treasurer; Rev. Eugene Buhr, student council moderator and vice principal, and Jill O'Hara, vice president. They'll do some planning this summer for next fall's activities.

Two School Aides Win Doctorates

An elementary school principal and a curriculum consultant at the University of Southern California in 1950, then completed study for a master's degree which was awarded in 1959.

He has taught in the Torrance schools and served as a vice principal from 1955 to 1958. He became principal at Hamilton School in 1958. Dr. Wickstrom did his doctoral dissertation on "Administrative Policies and Practices Relating to the Elementary School Foreign Language Program in California."

DR. WICKSTROM, a native of San Pedro, is a Narbonne High graduate. He received his bachelor's degree in education at the University of Southern California in 1954 as principal of Carr Elementary School. He served in the same capacity at Riviera and Hickory Schools before becoming a consultant in 1962. He is a graduate of San Pedro High School and earned both his bachelor's and master's degrees in education at the University of Southern California.

His dissertation was on "Programs for Gifted Children." Both men are married. Dr. Wickstrom and his wife are parents of a 16-year-old girl and a 14-year-old boy. Dr. Duncan and his wife have an 11-year-old son and a 6-year-old daughter.

DR. DUNCAN, a native of Montana, joined the Torrance

Taxes Must Be Placed in Bank

Employers liable for income tax withheld and social security taxes in excess of $100 for the month of May must place such taxes in a local authorized bank or Federal Reserve bank by tomorrow according to R. A. Riddell, district director of Internal Revenue.

Circular E, "Employer's Tax Guide," which furnishes more detailed information on this subject is available upon request from the Internal Revenue Service.

Bureau Needs Drivers Now For Disabled
