Air Force Recruiting Session Set

Lt. Col. William Lyon, commander of the 943d Troop Carrier Group, has announced plans for a second Air Force Reserve recruiting meeting in Torrance. The meeting is part of his unit's Back-in-the-Blue operation.

The meeting will be held in the city council chambers at the Torrance City Hall at 8 p.m. tomorrow. The first meeting of the unit was held in November.

Air Force Reservists who may have lost their Reserve assignments because of the reduction ordered in the Recovery program last week were especially invited to attend tomorrow evening's session.

Col. Ryan said the benefits of an assignment with the 943d will be discussed in detail. During July, a large number of the 943d reservists will spend their two week encampment in Alaska.
