

Tartar Teen Talk

By Pam Flemming

The Class of '65 reigns! As "Grad Week" ended with the Commencement ceremonies, proud new seniors turned their class rings around to signify their new status. Some Tartars of '65 enjoyed such pleasures as strolling through the Senior Patio or anticipating other senior privileges.

For the graduates, baccalaureate services, held in the THS Auditorium, began the fun-filled and sometimes nostalgic week of pre-graduation activities. The June 7 services were held at 3 p.m. The invocation and benediction were given by the Rev. H. Milton Sippel of the First Christian Church. Prayer and the closing invocation and benediction were given by the Rev. Arthur L. Nagel of the First Methodist Church. The Rev. R. Wallis Kornegay of the First Nazarene Church gave the baccalaureate address.

Monday and Tuesday the Class of '64 checked out of classes, practiced for the commencement exercises, and held their annual signing party.

Jane Allen, senior class president, presided over the Senior Luncheon, held Wednesday at the Torrance Elks Lodge. Guests were served from a buffet lunch and a large program of entertainment was presented. Acting as hostesses were girls from the junior class.

Graduation itself brought an end to the Senior's week. The ceremony was held at 8 p.m., June 11, at Torrance High Stadium. Two hundred and fifty-three graduates marched to their seats on the field as the traditional "Pomp and Circumstance" was played by the Tartar Band.

The Rev. Arthur L. Nagel of the First Methodist Church gave the invocation. Two choral presentations were given by the Senior Choir. Commencement speakers, Patricia Sue Adams, Jeffry Philip Carpenter, and Valedictorian Diana Aline Geruc gave presentations under the theme "Above All Nations Is Mankind."

DIRECTED BY Marc E. Billigmeier, the class song, "Eternal Father, Strong to Save," was also sung.

After the diplomas had been distributed by Dr. Kurt T. Shery and Dr. J. H. Hull, the graduates retired, leaving behind many memories and four great years at THS.

Following graduation, the all-night party was held at the Mayflower Ballroom in Inglewood.

I WOULD LIKE to congratulate the 1964 annual staff for a terrific job on the Torch and of course congratulations to the Class of 1964!

Wishing you a happy summer... I'll see you in the fall.

Everything In One Place
