Several Seventh Grade Students Get a Break

As more than 4,000 students head for Torrance's four high schools to attend summer classes next Monday, 156 seventh graders will join their ranks.

The program is part of the enrichment curriculum of Torrance's "academically talented" students. To qualify, students must rank in the top two per cent of those tested.

For the past three years students in the program have been offered an opportunity to take two courses during summer session — one academic course and one enrichment course.

COURSES seventh-graders signed up for during pre-registration include: exploratory science, exploratory math, exploratory foreign language, typing, music, physical fitness, and English skills.

Students who participate will also have an opportunity to take an early-bird high school course each morning before putting in their day's work at elementary school during eighth grade.

Eighth-grade academically talented students are offered an opportunity to get in an additional summer of high school work between graduation from elementary school and the start of their freshman year. This summer 102 academically talented eighth-graders will be among the 4,000 students attending summer high school.

WITH THREE or four high school courses tucked under their belts when they enter their freshman year, academically-talented students start high school slightly ahead of the game. Result is more time to take additional electives or time to pursue their particular field in greater depth.

Directing the academically talented program is Dr. Donald Duncan, curriculum coordinator.

Also attending high school this summer will be 1,628 elementary school graduates who wish to get a head start on high school work.

MARY WISE Menu Planners AND SHOPPING SUGGESTIONS

FRESH PLUMS are one of summer's delights to be served for eating out-of-hand. They lend themselves to prepared dishes, too, as suggested here in a spicy crumb pie.

Fresh Plum Desserts Are Summer Feature

Unequaled for their blend of sweet and tart flavors, fresh California plums make enjoyable eating out-of-hand.

For delectable desserts, fresh plums provide either elegant fare or simple finales.

For the pie, plums are combined with cinnamon in the filling and covered with spicy crumb topping.

For the cakelets as suggested here, plums are folded into a spice cake mix for an easy and appetizing concoction for dessert or evening snack time.

line with waxed paper. Grease again and sprinkle lightly with flour.

Prepare spice cake mix according to package directions. Drain the reserved plums on absorbent paper and fold carefully into spice cake batter.

Turn into prepared pan and bake at 350 degrees for 30 to 35 minutes. Remove from oven and sprinkle warm cake with cinnamon-sugar mixture.

Allow to cool at least 10 minutes before cutting. Serve warm or cold with whipped cream, if desired.

- PLUM CRUMB PIE
- 1 unbaked pie shell (9-in.)
  - 2 cups sliced fresh plums, unpeeled
  - 1 cup sugar (less if plums are sweet)
  - 3 tbs. cornstarch
  - 2 tsp. butter
  - 2 tsp. cinnamon
  - Dash salt

Combine all ingredients and spoon into unbaked pie shell. Make topping by blending 1/2 cup soft butter with 1 cup crushed cornflakes, 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon, 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg and 1/2 cup brown sugar.

Sprinkle topping over plum filling. Bake pie at 400 degrees for 40 to 50 minutes. When serving, garnish pie with additional plum slices, if desired.

- PLUM CAKELETS
- 2 cups sliced fresh plums
  - 1 pkg. spice cake mix (regular size)
  - Cinnamon-sugar
  - Whipped cream, optional
- Wash 8 or 9 plums. Slice each plum into eighths, removing pit in process. Measure and set aside 2 cups.
- Pre-heat oven to 350 degrees. Grease bottom of 13x9x2-inch baking pan and

King Crab Leads Choice for June

With fish and seafood so generously available, the possibilities of their use in family menus are unending.

Although fish from salt and fresh water are most often associated with the main course of the meal, they fit into a great many other dishes such as soups, salads, cocktails, stuffings, sandwiches and canapes.

King Crab, Salmon, Tuna and Barracuda are the seafood choices for June of the Southern California Fisheries Association.

Recipes run from quick and easy salads to gourmet hot dishes.

Stuff King Crab into a green pepper and a fast-day dish becomes a feast-day meal. Just the right, sharp but light, seasoning enhances the unique flavor of the King Crabmeat.

- CRAB STUFFED GREEN PEPPERS
- 4 green peppers, seeded
  - 1/2 cup chopped scallions
  - 1/2 cup chopped celery
  - 1 cup soft bread crumbs
  - 2 tbs. butter
  - 1 can Deming's King Crabmeat
  - 2 eggs, slightly beaten
  - 2 tbs. chopped parsley
  - 1/2 tsp. salt
  - 1/4 tsp. pepper
- Cook peppers in boiling salted water for 5 minutes, or until tender-crisp.
- Meanwhile, saute scallions, celery and bread crumbs in butter over low heat until scallions are tender.
- Flake crabmeat; add eggs, parsley, scallion mixture, salt and pepper. Fill peppers and bake at 375 degrees for 20 minutes.

By Any Color!

Summer varieties of avocados coming into markets may have emerald green skins or purplish-black skins. No matter what color the skin, the fruit beneath it is the same delicate green-yellow shade the year-round.

Nothing satisfies the sweet tooth of many like a brownie — or two or three!

Try them made this way.

ALMOND BROWNIES

- 1/2 cup margarine
- 2 sqs. (1 oz. each) unsweetened chocolate
- 1 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup flour
- 1 tsp. baking powder
- 1 tsp. vanilla
- 2 eggs
- 1 cup sliced almonds

Canned apple sauce, heated and served over split buttered hot biscuits is a dish much relished. Sprinkled with sugar it could be a dessert. Given a shake of salt, it's dandy with meat.

Beef for Breakfast

Beef is becoming a popular breakfast food because of its tempting flavor and staying power. There are no mid-morning hunger pangs after a small steak, seasoned ground beef patty, serving of creamed dried beef or beef bouillon.

Stuffed Wieners

Cut ripe olives into small pieces; combine with chopped pickle and processed American cheese spread. Cut lengthwise slits in hot frankfurters and fill with olive mixture.
