

Porter-Sampson Nuptials Read in Baptist Service

Miss Carole Porter, daughter of Mrs. Nina Porter, 1872 Palos Verdes, Lomita, became the bride of Stephen Sampson in a 7:30 o'clock wedding ceremony at the First Baptist Church in Lomita on a recent Saturday. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Sampson, of Wilmington.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her brother Mr. John Porter. She wore a traditional floor-length wedding gown of white silk organza fashioned with a train. Her elbow-length illusion veil fell from a crown of organza roses. White roses encircling white orchids formed the bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Samuel Stuckey was the bride's honor attendant. She wore a rose peau de soie and carried deep pink carnations. Edwin James per-

Classes in Bridge Set At YWCA

Two classes in beginning bridge are open now for registration at the Torrance YWCA. The weekly lessons are two hours and run for eight weeks. John McDonough, the instructor, is well known in this area as a qualified bridge instructor, having taught at several YWCAs and now associated with the Landmark Bridge Club. The daytime session will start Tuesday, July 14, at 10 a.m. to 12 noon. There will be supervised child care included for mothers of children, 4 to 9 years. The evening class is open to both men and women and will meet Friday evenings

7:30-9:30 p.m., starting July 17. For registration or additional information, the YWCA may be called.

. . . Ann Landers

(Continued from Page 17) your husband's. It should be decided by the two of you—and not by your mother. Since you feel your husband needs your help, I hope you will offer it to him.

Dear Ann Landers: My fiancé has an important birthday coming up. I asked him what he would like and he replied, "For years I have secretly wanted a diamond ring in a gold mounting." Frankly, I was shocked.

I always had the idea that only gamblers, gangsters or kept men wore diamond rings. I don't know where I picked up this notion, but it is firmly fixed in my mind. If I am wrong will you please tell me?—IDA

Dear Ida: You ARE wrong, and I am telling you. All kinds of men wear diamond rings—for all kinds of reasons. It is not the trademark of undesirable characters. It is a matter of personal taste.

Confidential to Executive Suite: Obviously the last guy in his office sells him. Your best hope is to be the last guy to get his ear before the important decisions are made.

To many starry-eyed lovers do not know the difference. Do you? Send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Before You Marry—Is It Love or Sex?" enclosing with your request 25 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope. Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope. (c) 1964, Publishers Newspaper Syndicate

Student to Leave for Europe Tour

Mrs. Joann Portlock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Portlock, 1633 Iris Ave., will leave July 11 on the SS Oriana for a seven-week tour of Europe, with stops at Honolulu, Acapulco, Jamaica and Bermuda, then on to England, Holland, Belgium, Switzerland, Germany, Italy and France.

Sponsored by the Art Department at Fresno State College, six units of upper division credit will be earned for this tour.

Miss Portlock has attended Fresno State for the past two years where she is majoring in home economics. She has been active in various organizations and committees.

Upon her return to Fresno State in the fall, as a Junior, she will hold the position of Associated Women Students' vice president and will be resident advisor to the students in Graves Hall.
