Seaman Apprentices Henry E. Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Davis, 2511 Brian Ave., and Terry M. Fitzpatrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas K. Fitzpatrick, 3321 Danaha St., are crewmembers of the Navy ammunition ship USS Pyro operating out of Concord, Calif.

Pyro recently completed a six month cruise to the Western Pacific, where in addition to accomplishing its mission in keeping the Seventh Fleet supplied with ammunition, it helped the United States' people-to-people program by adopting the Tenshin Ryo orphanage in Sasebo, Japan. While in Sasebo crewmembers built a playground, repaired a roof, painted rooms and greatly helped the orphanage in providing for the wants of those under its charge.

Terry R. Cassel, personnelman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence R. Cassel, 1048 W. 223rd St., recently visited Naples, Italy, aboard the Navy attack aircraft carrier

"Tactical Aid to Navigation" used in the Navy's Douglas "Skyhawk" attack bomber at the Naval Air Maintenance Training Detachment 1079, Naval Air Station, Lemoore, Calif.

His duties consist of inspecting and maintaining aviation radar equipment including radar relay equipment and all test equipment.

A graduate of Washington High School at Los Angeles, Hertz entered the service in July 1959.

Seaman Appren. Francis J. Fleming, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Fleming, 4703 Towers St., recently participated aboard the Navy gen-

MARINE CORPS . . . PFC Thomas J. Guthrie, son of Mrs. Marcy C. Guthrie of 18902 Kornblum Ave., completed four weeks of individual combat training last month at the Second Infantry Training Regiment, Marine Corps Base, Camp Pendleton.

USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond L. Hertz, aviation electronics technician (radar and radar navigation equipment) second class, USN, son of Raymond L. Hertz, 2903 Ormie St., recently completed a maintenance course in the eral stores issue ship USS Pollux in a combined sea-assault and airborne combat training exercise called "LITGAS" May 12 to June 10 under the direction of the South-East Asia Treaty Organization (SEATO) in the Philippines.
