

New Work Program for Aid Recipients Begun

Skills and abilities of persons receiving public assistance will be put to work for the benefit of taxpayers under a new program announced last week by Supervisor Kenneth Hahn.

Hahn said there are more than 3,390 recipients of Aid to Families with Dependent Children in Los Angeles County. These people, said Hahn, are generally between the ages of 25 and 39.

"State laws stress that vocational training, rehabilitation, and apprentice training shall be encouraged," the supervisor noted. "Many of the men who will be put to work in this program are skilled in crafts and are union members, but due to cutbacks in defense contracts and temporary unemployment, they

Silverman Heads B'nai B'rith Group

Sanford "Butch" Silverman has been elected president of the Southwest B'nai B'rith Young Adults. Silverman will serve for the six month period ending Dec. 31.

Other new officers include Ron Patterson, first vice president; Fran Angel, second vice president; Tobin Winer, recording secretary; Marsha Altschuld, corresponding secretary; Lynne Mazo, treasurer; Ed Luboff, historian, and Fred Seligman, counselor.

Chapter meetings are held on the first and third Thursdays of each month at 8 p.m. The chapter meets at 3818 W. Imperial Hwy.

The group offers planned activities for persons 17 to 26 years of age.

Bureau Seeks Persons With Spare Time

The South Bay-Harbor Volunteer Bureau, located in the San Pedro Community Chest Building, 1427 South Pacific Ave., operates as a highly centralized referral bureau for volunteer workers.

If you would like to donate some of your spare time, the bureau can place you in a volunteer capacity. Volunteers are frequently called for to help with simple tasks, such as stuffing and addressing envelopes, typing and driving.

Mrs. Tinsy Buckler, executive secretary, TE 3-5227, can help place you in a volunteer position.

Single Parents

Slate Santa

Monica Meeting

The Santa Monica chapter of Parents Without Partners (PWP) will stage a "Singout" at 8 p.m. Friday in the Sandwood Room of the Surf Rider Hotel, 1700 Ocean Ave., Santa Monica.

The Santa Monica Sweet Adeline Chorus and the Manhattan Male Barbershop Quartet will provide entertainment along with community singing.

The public has been invited and information concerning membership will be available. The donation is $1.

Dance Class Registration Opened in Redondo Beach

Al Fonseca, professional dance instructor, passes on a few ballroom tips to class meeting under auspices of the Redondo Beach Recreation and Parks Department on Friday evenings.

Registration of the 10-week course will be held Friday at the Lincoln Recreation Building, 2230 Ernest. A fee of $2.50 per person will be charged for the series of 10 lessons.

Course will include fox trot and rumba for beginners meeting at 7:30 p.m., and cha cha and swing for the advanced students meeting at 9 p.m.

Purpose of this offering is not only to develop a sense of rhythm, balance and grace, but to provide a wholesome recreational activity through the development of these social skills.

Fonseca has been a professional dance instructor for many years having studied and taught with numerous studios as well as teaching for the Los Angeles County Department of Parks and Recreation.

Gateway Trio to Sing Tomorrow

The Gateway Trio, a pioneer folk singing group, will entertain students at Harbor College tomorrow at 8 p.m. in the Seahawk Center.

Admission is free to summer session students at the college. Students also may bring one guest at no charge. Admission charge for the public is 25 cents.
