

PLAN ANNUAL BAZAAR . . . The pleasant and colorful garden of Tameichi Wada in Harbor City makes a restful atmosphere to plan the Harbor Koyason Church and Japanese School's annual Bazaar and Ono, featuring Japanese dances presented by women and children in Japanese kimonos. The event will be held Saturday, July 25, from 4 p.m. until midnight, and again on Sunday from 4 until 10 p.m. at 25316 Frampton Ave., Harbor City. Setting the stage here (from left) are Donna Wada, Nancy Okamura, Helen Okamura, Christine Akiyama, and host Tameichi Wada. (Press-Herald Photo)

Candy-Strippers Help At Harbor Hospital

Twenty girls who are students at Bishop Montgomery High School have been spending part of their summer vacation helping other people. The girls, between the ages of 15 and 18, are working as volunteers at Harbor General Hospital. The service unit is known as the Candy-Strippers, and girls and boys from all area high schools are participating.

A recommendation from the church and the school which a student attends and a "C" average in their school work are the only pre-requisites.

Mrs. Margaret Broen McAllister heads the volunteers at the hospital. She directs the girls in such tasks as making beds, feeding patients, and answering telephones. The on-the-job training provides the girls with some practical experience and gives the hospital some valued aid.

Following a year and a half in the program, two BMHS girls have qualified as research assistants. They are Cathy Koerting and Diane Comstock.

Miss Koerting, 17, works with Dr. Zike, head of pediatrics in bacteriology. She intends to enter a pre-medical school after graduation next June.

Miss Comstock, also 17, assists Dr. Bowman in doing research in gastrology. Dr. Bowman is working on a fellowship from the University of California at Los Angeles.

CANDY STRIPPERS . . . Kathy Doyle and Linda Hudson, students at Bishop Montgomery High, are doing what many young people in Torrance do during the summer—working as volunteers at Harbor General Hospital. The candy-strippers have become an important part of the volunteer service at the hospital.
