Dear Ann Landers: Our 14-year-old was totally deaf to my pleas to hang up her clothes and put things where they belonged. I was beside myself whenever guests were expected. I used to lock Joan's bedroom door to make sure no one would wander in by mistake and see the mess.

A friend told me how she solved the problem with her teen-ager and I'd like to pass it on because it worked for me, too. I took the pillows off Joan's bed, tossed them on the floor, rolled the blanket into a ball, took the sheets half off and turned the matters. the mattress cross - way against the springs. The room looked as if a twister had hit.

When Joan came home and saw the bed she came running down the stairs shrieking, "mother, what happened to my room?" I replied, "Nothing. I decided the bed ought to look like the rest of the room."
