Torrance Teacher Weds Clinton Jamile June 13

Miss Alta Graham became the bride of Clinton Jamile in an evening ceremony at the South Bay Christian Church on June 13. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Shockley, 5622 Ruby St., Torrance. Her husband is the son of Mrs. Helen Jamile of Honolulu, Hawaii.

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by Mr. Shockley, the bride wore a full length gown of peau de soie and lace. The bodice of Chantilly lace had a V neckline and long sleeves. The bell-shaped skirt of peau de soie had a fullness at the back and fell into a chapel train. Her tulle veil was secured by a rose petal crown and she carried a cascade of white roses encircling white orchids.

Mrs. Veon Humber served as matron of honor and bridesmaids were Mmes. Susan Alderman, Barbara Jamile, Debbie Otterson; and Miss Wrenn Barthold. They wore yellow crepe sheaths with white lace overblouses and carried yellow carnations. Little Janet Pennington, in a yellow frock, dropped yellow and white petals in the path of the bride.

James Humber stood as best man and ushers were James Beggs, James and Steve Webber. Master James Beggs was the ring bearer. Rev. Donald Jarmen officiated at the candlelight ceremony.

The newlyweds were greeted at a reception in the church hall after which they left for a honeymoon in Mexico. The new address is 5300 Lorna St., Torrance.

The new Mrs. Jamile is a teacher at Crenshaw Elementary School in Torrance. She was graduated from Redondo High and received after the operation that her mother will probably not live more than another two months.

My wife is an only child and decided she must stay at her mother's side until the end. We have no children and I agreed to cooperate and get along as best I can.

Now I regret my gesture. I have to take my laundry to the corner and I eat out every night. I hate being by myself. I know my wife is not having a picnic out there, but I'm alone any way you look at it.

I feel a lot better after I put my bitter thoughts down on paper. Don't you feel I'm entitled to blow my top and that she should be able to take it? Should I write to her and express my true feelings and consider it "therapy" for me? — SOLO

Dear Solo: By all means, write. Get it out of your system. The mearer the letters, the better. But please mail them to me — not to her.

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a college junior working my way through school selling shoes. I'm not exactly a Paul Newman but I wouldn't scare any little children, either.

The problem is I'm shy around chicks. It fractures me the way the fellows here get dates with no effort. They say exactly the right thing, and it works like a charm.

A certain girl (I will call her Miss 5 Double A) comes in almost every Saturday. She is always carrying some good books — the ones I've been wanting to read — so I know we would have a lot in common.

How can I get to know her better without appearing to be fresh? If you can come up with a good opener I'd be grateful. — CANAL BOAT EDDY

Dear Eddy: Next time "Miss 5 Double A" comes in tell her you are writing a telephone book and would like to include her number.

If excessive drinking is wrecking your health or destroying someone you love, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Help For The Alcoholic," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope. (1964, Publishers Newspaper Syndicate)
