

"Armed Forces Day to Be Honored by Joint Dinner

TORRANCE — The Bert S. Crossland American Legion Post, the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the D. A. V. organization of this city will honor "Armed Forces Day" with a joint dinner to be held the evening of Tuesday, May 16th, the public relations office of the Crossland Post announced today.

In the second of a two-phase

Dance Contest

TORRANCE — The third round of an elimination program to determine finalists for a sweet-swing dance contest will be presented during a "Spring Dance," to be held by the Bert S. Crossland American Legion Post at the post hall on Saturday, April 29th, according to an announcement made by Mr. Robert Fernley, committee chairman, yesterday.

Give Dance

Junior Chamber will host friends and members this Saturday night when they will hold a public dance at Higgins Brick Yard, 2217 W. 174th St. Chairman Alan Dube announced that the dance held last December proved so popular that it was felt that another one was due. There will be refreshments and free sandwiches served, to further insure an evening of fun and dancing.

Quartette to Sing at Church

TORRANCE—The Ozark Male Quartette will sing in the Torrance Foursquare Church, 1207 El Prado, Sunday, at 7:30 p.m. They will sing in the southern style, the songs you like to hear. Evangelist Tommy Hicks is now conducting revival service, and was given a real welcome upon his return for a campaign after two years. Evangelist preaches every night at 7:30 except Monday and Saturday, and will preach at 10:45 Sunday morning.

Community Sing

HARBOR CITY—Television and radio celebrities, Dixie Miles, Leah Shelton, Hal Conrad and Bob Shannon will be dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Taylor, 25517 President Ave., Harbor City Friday night. The dinner will precede a special program which will be presented the Harbor City Community Sing Friday evening at 7:30 at the Harbor City school.

Freeway

(Continued from Page One) very foolish to spend public money in purchasing the more expensive "business frontage," said Chandler, "although current market value prices will be paid for all property purchased." Torrance and Lomita residents will have access to the Freeway through the following ramps: Four-way ramps at 101 highway, Sepulveda boulevard, Carson street and Del Amo street; two-way ramps at Ocean street, north and south from the Freeway, and 223rd street, east and west to the Freeway.

Dump Survey

(Continued from Page One) asked that it be converted into a city park. The council ordered the petitions filed and agreed to visit the dump on the day of the next meeting to view the situation. The city has been in the process of buying a piece of adjoining property to expand the dump and the report of this action spurred the residents to petition that the area be closed down.
