Adult Arts and Crafts Exhibit Slated for June 1

An exhibit of local handicraft in ceramics, china painting, leather, copper tooling, textile painting, dressmaking, woodshop, machine shop, and cake decorating will be held on Thursday night, June 1, at 7:30 in the auditorium of the Torrance Evening High School.

This exhibit is free and is held in conjunction with the concert of the Torrance adult orchestra with Joseph Piastro, guest conductor.

Students and teachers of the arts and crafts will be on hand to help newcomers in learning their skills as a hobby or vocation.

Residents of the following communities are displaying their handicraft: Redondo, Hermosa, Manhattan, Palos Verdes, San Pedro, Wilmington, Long Beach, Lawndale, and OLS Angeles. Many of their products were given special, first and second prizes in the recent Hobby Show conducted in the Torrance Civic Auditorium.

"This is a special opportunity to plan your adult classes for next year," said Donald Manshaw, Torrance Director of Adult Education. "We will be glad to open a new world for you by showing you new crafts or helping you achieve greater heights in the crafts in which you are now engaged."

All adults regardless of residence are invited to attend this free, impressive public exhibit held for one night only, on Thursday, June 1, at 7:30, in the Torrance High School Auditorium.

TORRANCE—A drive for clothing to be sent to children in war-torn European countries is slated next week by women's organizations at El Camino College, it was announced today.

eral municipal election shall be held in all cities of the sixth class on the second Tuesday in April of each and even-numbered year.

"The election here in question was held on April 11, 1950, the second Tuesday, and presumably was the general election required to be held by Section 9704.

"Article 2 of Division X sets forth the procedure to be followed in election contests in connection with general elections.

"Section 5 of Article VI of the Constitution and the Elections Code vest in the Superior Court jurisdiction to hear and determine election contests, where the court states: 'The jurisdiction thus vested may not lightly be deemed to have been destroyed.'

"With respect to contests of municipal elections, it seems that the Court can be deprived of jurisdiction only in the character or act creating the contest vests in its governing body, EXCLUSIVE jurisdiction to determine election contests."

"With respect to the act incorporating the City of Santa Rosa, the court states: 'In cases of contests of election the Act of 1872 authorized and directed the board of trustees to notify the parties of the time and place of hearing to hear testimony, to examine witnesses and the ballots of said election, and to determine between said contestants, which decision and determination shall be entered in the minutes of the board and shall be final...'

(Stats. 1872, p. 628.) On March 13, 1876, the legislature amended the Act of 1872, and by Section 9 re-enacted Section 8 of that Act, conferring like powers on the common council, and declared that their decision in election contests between city officers should be 'final and conclusive.'

"No such provisions are found in the Torrance Charter.

"McGregor v. Board of Trustees, 159 Cal. 441, holds that the provisions in Section 860 of the Municipal Corporations Act (Stats. 1883, p. 267) 'the board of trustees shall judge of the qualifications of its members and all election returns and determine contested elections of all city officers' did not confer exclusive jurisdiction in election contests. Prohibition was granted an mandate to the board to proceed to hear and determine the contest was issued, because the board of trustees of Burlingame had commenced the hearing of the election contests.

"In Hopkins v. Anderson, 218 Cal. 62, at p. 66, the court holds: 'The jurisdiction of the Superior Court remains, unless it appears with unequivocal certainty that the people intended to take it away.'

"If a contestee appears and interposes a general demurrer to the statement of the contestant it has the effect of a general appearance, giving the court full
