Election For Moose Officers

Women of the Moose Torrance chapter will hold election of officers on June 24, at the Moose Lodge.

May Nelson, Senior Regent, will be in charge of the election, with Martha Jones, membership chairman, in charge of activities. Friendship breakfast has been postponed until June 25.

Eligible For GI Benefits

Unremarried widows of veterans who died as the result of service in World War II are made eligible for GI home, farm and business loans under the terms of instructions issued by Veterans Administration to its field offices, VA Washington, D. C., said this week.

Installs Officers

The 3rd annual June breakfast of Torrance Council of Parents Teachers was held at the Christian Church, June 7. Schools participating were, Fern Ave., Perry, Torrance Elementary, Torrance High School, Seaside and WALTERIA Schools.

Following officers of Torrance Council of 50-51 were Installed: Mrs. A. C. Turner of Torrance High, Mrs. A. B. Cowie of Perry; Mrs. V. J. Vanderpool of Fern Ave., Mrs. Elmer Moon of Torrance High; Mrs. Paul Roettger of Seaside School; Mrs. Paul Sloneker of WALTERIA; Mrs. Kenneth Ruffell of Torrance Elementary, Mrs. Kenneth Beight of Perry, and Mrs. W. E. Bowen of Torrance High School. Mrs. Lila H. Stevenson, president of 1st district was installing officer. 93 P-TA members and guests attended the breakfast.

New School For Catholic Primary Grade

LOMITA—Rev. John Hegarty, pastor of St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church, announced this week that the county has granted a building permit to the church for the construction of its new school and church at 25515 Eshelman Ave. at a value of $78,560.

The church will replace the present building at 253rd St. and Narbonne Ave. Rev. Hegarty said the school will be for the primary grades. It is the first Catholic school to be built in Lomita.

Designer of the modern Spanish type church and school is Lawrence D. Viole, Van Nuys civil engineer, who also designed the Holy Family Church at 1010 E. L St. in Wilmington. Contractor is Stanley C. Zyda.

The school is expected to be completed in time for the opening of the fall semester in September, but the church project will be under construction a longer period of time.

Has Accident Near Hospital

TORRANCE—Edward Slate, 20, of W. O'Farrell St., San Pedro, enjoyed the good luck this week of having an auto accident a few feet from the main gate of Harbor General Hospital, but the motorist managed to escape the wreck without injury.

Church Notices

Rev. Gerald Weaver will be the guest speaker Friday evening at 7:30 in the Torrance Foursquare Church, 1207 El Prado. Weaver was cabin counselor in the great Youth Camp held at Camp Radford last year where over 300 young people were in attendance.

Father's Day will be remembered in the Torrance Foursquare Church Sunday, and in the vespers evangelistic service during the special program. A gift will be given to the Father having the largest number of his children, and grand children present.

Monday, June 19th will be the opening day of the Daily Vacation Bible School under the supervision of Mrs. Martha Bell. All children are cordially invited to attend.
