Triple-Threat Racing Program At Carrell Speedway

Another triple-threat racing program is on tap at Carrell Speedway this week with the AMA motorcycles, CRA hot rods and Galloping Jalopies again sharing honors over the Gardena smokepath's racing course.

The powerhouse cyclists have been coming tantalizing close to the half-mile dirt track record in their Wednesday night meetings particularly during the four-lap Helmet Dash.

X-RAY HOSTESS STOPS BUS DRIVER — Even though he's working again and no longer on strike, Transit Lines Operator J. F. Lilley spares a minute to get his free chest x-ray at the Pershing Square mobile unit. Celis O. Rendon, hostess, is assuring Lilley that x-rays are free, take less than a minute and the results are strictly confidential.

Music Scholarship Awarded Student At Harbor College

John Bernardi, music major at Harbor Junior College, has been awarded a summer scholarship to the Arrowbear Music Camp, Miss Loretta Newman, music instructor at the local college, announced today.

The camp, sponsored by Fred Ohlendorf, supervisor of instrumental music for the Long Beach City School System, is located in the San Bernardino Mountains.

El Camino College Budget Is $2,401,536

The tentative budget for El Camino College was adopted by the Board of Trustees last night calling for an expenditure during the next fiscal year of $2,401,536. Although this tentative budget is an increase of $350,000 over the budget last year it will not result in any increase in taxes according to college officials.

Other actions of the Board included: 1—Acceptance of work done under contract with Hanson & Miske, Inc., of Lynwood, for construction of addition to Shops Building. 2—Ratification of Agreement with Southern California Edison Company for the removal of utility pole line on Crenshaw Boulevard. 3—Employment of Mrs. Eugenia Smith as an Instructor in dressmaking, pattern making and related design. Mrs. Smith was formerly employed at Compton College. 4—Employed Karl H. Stello as
