JOANN MOORE

Bethrothal Of Joann Moore Told By Parent

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Moore, 21730 S. Grace, Torrance recently announced the engagement of their daughter, Joann to Charles Wilson. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Wilson of 23547 Pennsylvania avenue, Torrance. Whereas no definite wedding plans have been made, the couple said that they plan to be married in the near future. They will make their residence in Torrance. Joann is now attending Torrance High School as a junior. Charles is a 1950 graduate from Torrance High School. He is now employed by a local canning concern.

Royal Neighbors Entertain Guest Camps at District Meet

Torrance Camp Royal Neighbors of America entertained the different Camps in the District at a special meeting November 28th, held in the Woman's Club House on Engracia Avenue. A good response was had from all camps in the District with two visitors from Gem Camp of Colorado Springs, Colorado, being present.

The Oracle, Mrs. Hazel Huton, turned the meeting over to the District Representative, Mrs. Mamie Kirschner of Culver City who discussed the growth and plans of the different camps for the coming year. Mrs. Kirschner, assisted by Mrs. Betty Gaston of Redondo Beach then made presentations for extra awards of merit. Redondo Beach and Torrance were tied for high honor.

The meeting was then turned over to the chairman of the evening, Mrs. Sam Shepherd who presented the following program: Dance by two pupils of the Three Art Studio; a skit presented by Mrs. Mary West entitled "Ma and Pa"; songs and dancing by The Accordionettes, Jerry Nichols, Tate Dale and Patsy Dunbar; and musical selections by The Barbarettes.

The main event of the evening was the initial appearance of the Torrance Royal Neighbor Drill Team. The team is under the leadership of Mrs. Jean Hanon. The girls' costumes were made along Cow Girl lines with blue denim skirts, fringed on the bottom and down the side with high safety pins for the closing.

The blouses were white broadcloth with a large Circle T emblem. (The Circle T is the Torrance Emblem for the Western Campaign). The hats were regular black cow-girl hats and the belts had holsters with pistols.

The members of the team are: Captain, Mrs. Jean Hanon; Assistant Captain, Mrs. Sophia Duncan; Mary Baker, Marie Koshak, Angeline Disario, Patricia Young, Dolores McViears, Mrs. Coffee, Dorothy Malloy, Alice Deaton, Margaret Stevens substituting for Velma Scanlon, Miss Dunbar substituting for Georgia Chapman, and Lucille Meyers substituting for Susie Walker, musician.

The table decorations of brown and black hats, a corral and other western themes were arranged by Mrs. Margie Nichols. The refreshments were served by Mrs. Margat Stavens and committee.

FAMILY DINNER
Mr. and Mrs. Richard K. Ohlman and family, of 2419 Border Avenue, spent Thanksgiving day with Mrs. Ohlman's sister, and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin House of Morning Side Park.
