room parties at the elementary schools. Room mothers will be in charge of the individual parties. Christmas programs are also being presented this week at the various schools in the Torrance Unified School District. Talking through the five new microphones in the Council Chamber of the City Hall, the Council approved $700 of appropriations for Christmas parties, including the Annual Lions Christmas Party.

The appropriations included $125 for WALTERIA, $125 for El Retiro and Seaside Rancho, $225 for North Torrance and $225 for Central Torrance. The Lions Club Christmas Party is included in the Central Torrance appropriation. Over 2000 children are expected to attend this Annual Lions Club Christmas Children's Party to be next Thursday, December 21 in the Civic auditorium.

Increase Of Unemployed In December

December unemployment has shown an increase of 436 persons in the Torrance area as compared to November unemployment of 1448 persons, according to Winona Ellis, manager of the Torrance office of the State Unemployment Dept. Unemployment total for December is 1884 persons.

Of the total unemployment for December, 958 are women and 926 are men.

Unemployment benefits for persons at other hospitals are $190 a month.

The Board of Supervisors suggested a $5 a month step-up on the present five step wage program, but tabled further action until December 26.
