

College Artists Display Replicas of Master Works

Two colorful oil paintings, replicas of early masterpieces, are on display in front of the El Camino college administration building. Under the supervision of Miss Mildred Walker, college art instructor, "The Virgin of Santa Ines and Santa Tecla" by El Greco was reproduced this year by four El Camino student artists. The second painting, "Taspi Madonna" by Raphael, was completed last year.

The four students who reproduced El Greco's masterpiece are Betty Lane, 15722 Grevillea avenue, Lawndale; Hazel Kennedy, 225 West Kelso street, Inglewood; Ray White, 16941 Arlington avenue, Gardena, and Nellie Parker, 237 East 135th street, Hawthorne.

The original El Greco oil is 76x40 inches in size and now hangs in a Washington, D. C. gallery. To enlarge and reproduce the painting to 6x8 feet proportions required two weeks. However, only about six days were devoted to actual painting.

According to Miss Walker, a painting of similar size is planned for each year. Miss Walker was assisted by college art instructor, Donald Green.

Two DAR Officials Speak Tomorrow to Local Chapter

The Capt. Alexander Cleveland chapter of the DAR of Inglewood will hold its Jan. 5 meeting at the Victoria avenue home of the regent, Miss Edna Howard Fowler. Guests of the day will be the state regent, Mrs. Edgar Atkinson Fuller, who will speak on the work of the DAR in the state of California, and Mrs. Carl Heleman, chairman of the national building completion fund.

Miss Fowler will be assisted by her sister, Mrs. Ruth F. Kreuzer.

Herrmann Trio Home from Iowa

Home this week from a holiday vacation with their family in Litchfield, Ia., are Citizen publisher Ted Herrmann and his sisters, Doris and Miriam, of 430 East Fairview boulevard.

Nine out of 10 brothers and sisters enjoyed Christmas week with their parents. The local trio returned with many gifts, presented at a pre-nuptial shower in honor of Doris, who plans to be married in June.
