

THAT'S IT!!! . . . Don Bleich, 24225 Ward street, Waveria, sponsored by the Torrance Press for the Soap Box Derby, puts the finishing touches on his home-made racer. Don, 13 years old, and an entering Torrance High School freshman, will race today in the All American Soap Box Derby eliminations at the Arroyo-Seo Playground. He is one of 18 local entries. Finals will be held Saturday, July 21. Paul Lorange of Paul's Chevrolet, is sponsoring the derby for all Torrance area boys.

Work Started On County Courthouse

Groundbreaking ceremonies of the new County Courts Building at Pacific avenue and Pacific Coast highway in Redondo Beach were conducted at noon last Wednesday, July 11, with Los Angeles County Supervisor Raymond V. Darby turning the first spadeful of earth for the project.

The court, which replaces the present Township Justice Court of Gardena, is expected to be completed at a building cost of $85,000.

Pocket Books For Servicemen Being Sought

A plea is being made for pocket novels to be used by servicemen overseas in Korea. It was announced by Mrs. Gordon Jones, of the Torrance chapter of the American Red Cross.

Anyone having such books they wish to contribute should contact Mrs. Jones at the Red Cross Headquarters, 1347 El Prado ave., or telephone Torrance 3447. Arrangements will be made to have the books picked up.

Beach. F. S. Haynes acted as master of ceremonies. Mayors of Hermosa Beach, Manhattan Beach, Torrance, Gardena and Palos Verdes Estates also joined in the ceremonies.

'Life,' Christian Science Bible Lesson Subject

The Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Life" in all Christian Science churches sets forth the benefits which follow as one gains a spiritual understanding of the fact that Life is God and hence eternal.

The Golden Text is from Romans (8:23): "The wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord."

Dixieland Music At Legion Dance

Dixieland music will come to Torrance for the first time Saturday evening at 9 p.m., with the announced appearance of a Dixieland band at a regular dance of the Bert S. Crossland American Legion Post at the Legion's Border Avenue hall, Joseph Platt, vice-commander, announced today.

The dance will be open to the public.

They that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick" (7:3, 2, 8, 7, 10.)
