

MAYOR McGUP By John Jarvis

I DON'T SEE WHY YOU'RE TAKIN' THIS NEXT TRAIN ON YOUR BUSINESS TRIP TO WASHINGTON.

IT'S A MATTER OF ECONOMY, PETE. OUR TOWN'S TREASURY IS SHORT OF FUNDS.

I TAKE IT YOU'RE NOT TRAVELING ON AN EXPENSE ACCOUNT!

YOU'RE SO RIGHT!!

IT'S A DATE—Pat Christopher and one of famed racing camels invite visitors to 1952 Riverside County Fair & National Date Festival at Indio, California, February 19-24, inclusive. "Arabian Nights" will be colorful theme of event.

"I REMEMBER" BY THE OLD TIMERS

From William E. Beach, Montgomery, Mich.: I remember when my father ran a sawmill in Ohio and a man named Seth Moore drew logs to the mill in the winter with a pair of Holstein oxen named Tom and Jerry. I used to hitch my sled behind his and ride.

From Sims, Salem, Ind.: I remember that in 1878 my mother had me eating sulphur mixed with sorghum molasses to purify my blood and wearing around my neck a string of asafoetida to ward off evil spirits. Then the itch was thought of as a plague, and if one got it, he would keep scratching seven years. Believe me, I never had it.

From E. E. Meredith, Fairmont, W. Va.: I remember when high-wheeled bicycles vied with other forms of transportation in parades and celebrations.

From C. E. Pleas, Chipley, Fla.: In those days of long ago, we drew water from the well in an oaken bucket and drank from gourds. Some used wellsweps, a long pole swung between the forks of an upright pole with a bucket, swinging from the long pole that reached to the water. If the well was too deep for the sweep, then the water was reached by rope and windlass. If one let the crank get away from him when a full bucket was nearing the top, it was just too bad, and one got badly hurt when the crank flew back and hit him, maybe in the face or the top of the head.

From Mrs. Elizabeth West, Lynnville, Ind.: I remember the old fireplace with stick and clay chimney and bread baked in skillet with an iron lid.
