

Kirby Team Tops League

After romping over all local opposition and chalking up 12 straight wins in the Far West Major AAU League, Kirby Shoe Stores' basketball squad was selected to represent the Los Angeles area at the National AAU tournament at Denver, Colorado, beginning Sunday, March 16.

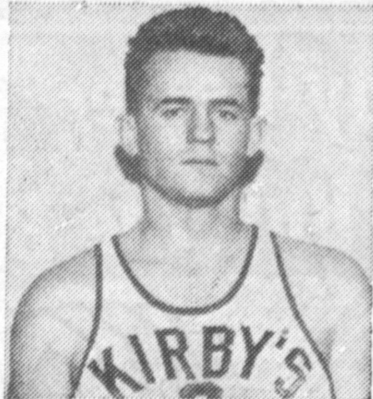

The club left in a chartered bus, appropriately painted up for the occasion, on Saturday morning—March 8—and passed through or near several of the stores en route out of state for three games in New Mexico before the tournament starts.

New Store for New Food Co.

The new display showroom of the Liberty Home Economy Company 1623 Crowens avenue, formerly at 1103 Sartori, this economy food company is the first of its nature in Torrance.

The grand opening at their new location will feature a complete display of streamlined Cooler refrigerators.

Free popicles made in a Cooler will be distributed to the children, according to Milt Isbell, one of the owners of the business. Walt Schaefer and Jim Lawson are the other owners of this rapidly expanding business.

SHOWN ABOVE is John Furlong, one of the top scorers on the Kirby Shoe Stores' basketball team. After stomping all local opposition with 12 straight wins, the team heads for Denver, Colorado, to compete in the National AAU tournament.

C. Jones Elected

Council Ignores

(Continued from Page One) Victor E. Benstead and Albert Isen—on the "BID for Better Government" ticket. Benstead, who missed election two years ago by only seven votes, and Isen, lawyer and property owner, also have been outspoken in their opposition to gambling of any kind.
