Latest Spring Styles Shown at Fashion Event

Spring made its entrance two days early in Torrance, when the combined Junior and Senior Women's Clubs presented their annual fashion show Wednesday evening, March 19. Summer apparel for every occasion from the beach to the dance floor was displayed in the Civic Auditorium before an audience of nearly 500.

Three professional models from the Doris Dodson Company and thirteen local models displayed 124 different ensembles, supplied through the courtesy of the Sam Levy Department Store.

The spotlight was on Milady's favorite current vogue—the full skirt with crinoline petticoat to emphasize a trim waist and a slim ankle. House, afternoon, and cocktail dresses featured this style in a wide variety of materials.

Latest thing in bathing designs was a tight-fitting black velvet Rose Marie Reid suit with a matching chocked encrusted with multi-colored sequins.

Mrs. Sylvia Miller described the latest trend, materials and colors as the garments were modeled.

After the show coffee and pie were served to the guests.

Localities who participated were: Mmes. J. P. Montague, A. Ewart, J. R. Klink, E. A. Miles, G. Oeroun, E. Roberts, Misses Cubbie Bohannon, Joanne Mitchell, Marilyn and Janice Dabbs, Barbara Howard, Jane Russell, and Eldora Brown.

Mrs. Ella Schwartz served as fashion co-ordinator.

Mrs. E. L. Snodgrass was general chairman, aided by Mrs. T. M. Saine. Other committees included Mmes. W. I. Laughon, refreshments; Wm. Lewis, ticket chairman; J. Steinbaugh and A. Posner, ticket committee; D. P. Baldwin, publicity chairman; W. C. Boswell, mistress of ceremonies.

Matching pastel organdie dresses make a pretty picture on two charming sisters, Janice and Marilyn Dabbs. Boys and children are of the same color as the dresses. Many other children's clothes were modeled at the fashion show, Wednesday evening. Proceeds from this event will support charities of the Women's Clubs.

Mrs. Emma Roberts models tan linen afternoon ensemble. Trim on pockets, neckline, and around the shoulders is a rich brown with an Indian motif. Practical apparel for all sizes, ages, and budgets were featured in the show.
