Record Crowd Attends Annual Chamber of Commerce Dinner

Over 400 members and guests turned out for the annual Chamber of Commerce dinner meeting last night at Civic Auditorium. Pledge of allegiance, invocation by Rev. P. Wenske, and the national anthem preceded the serving of the prime rib dinner, which was prepared and served by the American Legion Auxiliary of the Bert Crossland Post. Accordion music was played throughout the meal by Vincent Zabic, Matt Katnich and Bob Mecin. After dinner entertainment was provided by the Merry Mechanics, courtesy of the Land Title Insurance Co., and duopianists, Misses Judy Yeltema and Mickey VanDeventer, pupils of Mrs. K. Buffington. Chamber President Robert Plomert introduced honored guests Representative Cecil King, Supervisor Raymond Darby, and Judge John Shidler. Featured entertainer of the evening was Tony Cabooch, Ambassador (Good Will) from Pakistan. Door prizes, a ceramic lazy suzanne and a leather canasta set, were awarded. They were donated by the Title Insurance and Trust Co. Flower decorations were created by La Galeria Florist. Favors, pocket knives for the men, and leather purse notebooks for the ladies, were provided by Columbia Steel Co.

CARD PARTY

The first in a series of card parties sponsored by the drill team of the Royal Neighbor Camp of Torrance was held Tuesday evening at 8 in the Woman's Clubhouse on Engracia St. Prizes were awarded for high scores, and refreshments were served after the games. A box of groceries was awarded as a door prize.
