

TOR-NIDO

By A. B.

A grateful thanks to A.B., whose words of wisdom were in last week's issue of Tor-Nido Patter. Nice work!

With a tear in our eye we bid farewell to Irene Pearl of 18524 Burin ave., who is moving to North Redondo and also to Pat Kerschner, 18520 Burin ave., who is moving to Lancaster. Mrs. Kerschner has been the president of the El Nido Parents Association. Farewell gals, luck and happiness in your new homes. While waving goodbyes, we mustn't forget Mrs. Glenn Blake (Claudine), president-elect of the Perry school P.T.A., and as their delegate has gone to the San Francisco convention of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers Association.

April 21 is an important date for the El Nido Civic Association, whose guest speaker will be Raymond Darby. This group meets at the El Nido school, located on 186th and Hawthorne avenue.

Birthday greetings are extended to Mr. Edgar Williams, Jr., who became twenty-one on April 10, and also to Douglas McKean, 18437 Roslin ave., who celebrated his tenth birthday with a party on Saturday, April 12.

Lucky neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. A. Slatten, 18329 Roslin avenue, and their six youngsters, Ted, Kay, Lean, Mary, Ellen, John, Patricia and Charles were off on a long happy Easter weekend to Bakersfield and Salinas and completed the holiday by attending the beautiful wedding of Mr. Slatten's sister.

Mrs. D. Wolf at S. F. Convention

Mrs. Don Wolf, Los Angeles 10th District Membership chairman and incoming president of Narbonne High School P.T.A., left Tuesday morning for a five-day of the state C.C.P.T. in San Francisco.
