African Will Speak At First Methodist Mon.

Special guest preacher Roy Trust will speak Sunday at the 11 o'clock worship service at the First Methodist Church of Hawthorne, West 120 Street at Inglewood Avenue, Trust, who is a native of Hawthorne, has chosen as his sermon topic The Brother of Christ, based on Christ's question in Matthew 12:48, "Who are my brothers?" At the present time he is pursuing theological studies at the University of Southern California.

Richard O'Rear, vice-president and program chairman of the Methodist Men, announces as the featured speaker at the April 28, dinner meeting at 6:15, Chuckue-meka Okeke, a native of Nigeria, Africa. His topic will be "A Nigerian's Interpretation of America." The Naomi Circle of the Woman's Society of Christian Service will act as hostesses. President Robert McIntyre of the Methodist Men will preside.

Reservations for the Mother-Daughter Banquet to be served by the men, must be placed with Mrs. Alfred Furman, OS. 6-1239, before Sunday, April 27, according to the pastor.

Garden Club Meet Tonight
The Hawthorne Garden Club will meet this evening to make plans for their annual flower show. New members are welcome any Thursday evening at the Recreation Hall, 255 N. Ramona.

All members of the club are invited to attend the Thirteenth Annual Iris Show in Plummer Park, 7377 Santa Monica Boulevard, Sat. and Sunday to display Iris, and floral arrangements.
