Schultz Attends Ford Dealers Meet at Vegas

Charles Schultz, jr. is among the 29 local Ford dealers recently graduated from the Ford Merchandising school who will be on hand this week in Las Vegas, Nevada, for their fifth annual regional reunion, according to reports from the Ford company.

Compton executives headed by Arthur S. Hatch, regional sales manager, and Walter Cooper, assistant regional sales manager, will lead panel discussions and seminars covering all branches of dealership problems.

One of the main purposes of the Ford Merchandising school is to train young men, nominated for schooling by Ford dealers, the fundamentals of successful dealership operations. Each class spends four weeks at the school, company officials said.

Big Fund Loss Told as Court Goes to Redondo

The City of Torrance will be out several thousand dollars after January 1, when the inferior courts reorganization bill goes into effect, City Manager George Stevens announced this week.

The district municipal court at Redondo Beach, which will replace our city court, will mean a considerable cut in revenue from fines, Stevens said.

The cost of transporting prisoners from Torrance to Redondo Beach will be offset by funds allocated back here. The allocated funds are no where equal to income from Torrance City Court, Stevens pointed out.

To what extent the income cut will affect the 1952-53 year finances is being determined now by Stevens as he begins preparation of the city's budget.

Zitzer Faces Trial May 28

Not guilty was the plea entered by burglary suspect Jacob Zitzer before Superior Court Judge Fred Miller in Long Beach court last week.

Zitzer, the father of six children, was ordered to appear for trial May 28, the court disclosed.

Arrested last March 27, with a car load of merchandise allegedly stolen from homes and businesses in Welteria, Zitzer was released last week on bail reportedly furnished by a Sheboygan, Wisc. friend.
