Correction straight from Mrs. Richardson! Civil Defense meets tonight at her home, 3314 Primm Way, I put it in as meeting last night at this year's concluding Drop Me a Card and I Will Be

Stop! Don't eat dessert at tary School P-TA. 6 p. m. The project is being vention. sponsored by the mothers of the teria. Also the best two cakes will be auctioned off at the end of the evening.

Mrs. Waegner and Mrs. Menger with troop No. 398 from now until she takes the training this fall for Girl Scouting.

Mrs. Jacquelyn Arford is leaving for Paris, France on May 16th. The R. Waegners are making plans for a farewell dinner. Bon Voyage, Jackie!

Dorral, Mabel and Georgie Dumeshousen of Winlock Dr. had a real celebration Mothers Day. Dorral's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dumeshousen drove down from Santa Maria Saturday and are staying until today. The entire family gathered in Walteria Park Sunday for a Pot Luck Dinner. Mr. and Mrs. D. Myers of Walteria; Mr. and Mrs. E. Myers and their daughters, Barbara and Shirley, of Torrance; Mr. and Mrs. G. Pappas and daughter, Carol, of Lomita; Mr. and Mrs. D. Campeau and their children, Butch and Yvonne, presented Mabel with four prize rose bushes of various kinds. The four generations played ball and had a good day.

Talk about near brushes, the T. H. Wilsons of Cricklewood had them this past week! Harold went paddle boarding at Torrance Beach Tuesday. When he got beyond the breakers, his paddleboard sprung a leak, and he tried to pull it in. After fighting the rip tide for about ten minutes, he decided to hit for shore. Yes, he made it, but too close for comfort. Then, Thursday, his son David fell out of the car he was playing in. He landed on his head, but the doctor said no concussion. z

While going through Madrona school on a T. E. A. C. tour, I noticed Mrs. Carl Cramer, Mrs. Glenn Hardcastle and her grandmother and Mr. D. B. Kirks of Walteria P. T. A. I took Mrs. K. Matson as my guest.

Don't forget the flower show at the Recreation Hall.

Drama Students Show Play In ECC Festival

Torrance High School brings to a close a year of outstanding dramatic productions, when it presents Bal Wellington's comic farce "Don't Feed the Animals." at El Camino College's Drama Festival on May 23.

Several other high schools in the vicinity of El Camino have NOST-Ladies Red Billfold in been invited to participate in the annual drama events.

The cast of the Torranes production, which is under the direction of Jo Ann Benard, includes Leo Melvedt, Nancy Baird, Dwight Hanna, Ann Stephens, Sandy Ness, Joan Leech, Janet Williamson and Mickey Van Deventer.

New Dean Named At Harbor Tech

Mr. William H. McMasters has been appointed to the position of Dean of Administrations and Guidance at Harbor Junior College, Raymond J. Casey, Tech director, said today.

The new dean will be responsi ble for the guidance services and program of the college, including the establishment of admissions requirements, and will be the liasion officer between Harbor Tech and secondary schools and other colleges and universities.

Mr. McMasters holds a General Administrative credential, is a graduate of Occidental College, OCEAN VIEW Rest Home, 926 and has variously served in teaching and counseling positions in the Los Angeles City school system since 1933.

"One of the most important functions of a college must be HALL for rent. Suitable for wedeffective educational guidance for the students, and appointment of Mr. McMasters will materially assist us in attaining this ob- DRAW - DRAPE RODS, any jective at Harbbor Junior College," Casey stated.
