

LETTER TO A BLOOD DONOR I'LL NEVER KNOW..

126 GENERAL HOSPITAL
APO 790
Postmaster, San Francisco, Calif.

RED CROSS
WASH., D. C.

I got mine in Korea—and I'm writing this to you because I'll never know who the person was that gave blood to save my life.

Whoever you are—thanks. I guess what I'm trying to say is thanks to any and every American who gave blood. And I guess the best way really to thank you is to do for the next guy what you did for me. So as soon as I get out of the hospital here I'll stop by and give some blood myself.

Yours sincerely,
J. Hebert

What happened to that pint of blood you were going to give?
