135 New Homes
Near Walteria

Construction of 135 homes costing a total of nearly $1,000,000 is slated to begin at the southwest corner of Pacific Coast Highway and Crenshaw Blvd., in the very near future. Developers of the new tract, the January Co., this week filed applications for permits for the homes.

ONE OF THE PROMINENT figures at the 26th Annual Junior Chamber of Commerce convention, held in Avalon, Santa Catalina, May 8 to 11, was Howard Percy of Torrance. Percy, State District 12 Vice-President was one of the key men in the convention. He is shown here taking registration from George Pusich and Marie Pusich of San Pedro. In the background is Walter Jennings of Ventura, California. Over 1500 Jaycees and their families participated in the convention activities in Avalon.

Howard Percy Gets Jaycee Merit Award for Convention

A merit of outstanding achievement on behalf of the Torrance Junior Chamber of Commerce in promotion and organization of the California State Junior Chamber Convention was presented to Howard Percy at last Thursday's meeting of the Board of Directors.

Percy was chairman of entertainment for the event, which was held May 8, 9, 10 and 11 on Santa Catalina Island.

Because of his efforts, and those of other local Jaycee members, the Torrance Chamber will receive almost $500 from the proceeds of the affair.

One of the principle events of the convention sponsored by Torrance was a cocktail party held on the opening night. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Owens were host and hostess for the party. They were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. J. Neilsen, Mr. and Mrs. J.

Morehead, Mr. and rs. Don Loy, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lamb, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Goettsch and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Miller.

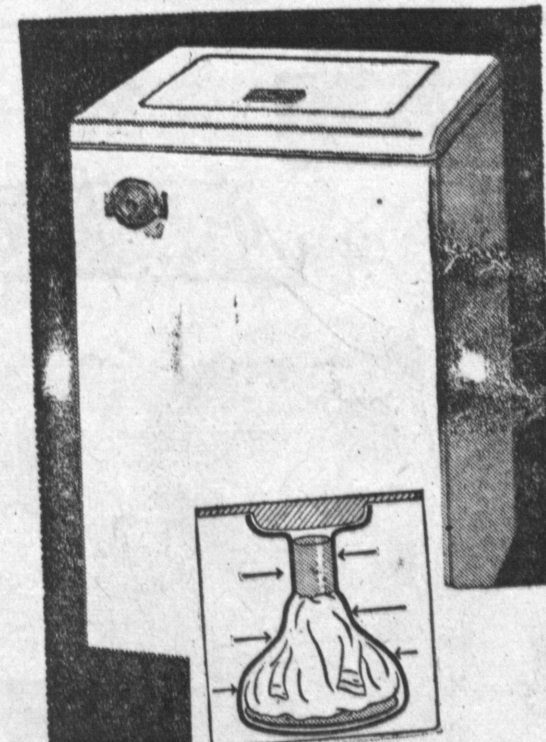

Also present at the party were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Karlow, Mr. and Mrs. H. Bolas and Velco Miltich.

A capacity crowd is expected to attend a lecture by Dr. Emil Painton, well-known occupational psychologist, at the next regular meeting of the Lomita Elementary School P-TA, to be held Thursday, June 12, at 7:30 p. m. in the school auditorium.
