

High School P-TA Heads Installed

Charles Wallace, who recently resigned his post as vice principal of the Torrance High School to accept a position as principal of Arcadia High School, was awarded life membership in the high school P-TA at the year's last meeting of that group last Tuesday.

Mrs. Victor Benard, new president of the Torrance P-TA Council, installed next year's officers of the high school P-TA. The new cabinet includes O. E. Kasten, president; Mrs. Sam Neely, first vice president; C. E. Wallace, second vice president; Mrs. Charles Curtis, recording secretary; Mrs. J. O. Popovich, corresponding secretary; Mrs. E. Bowman, treasurer; Mrs. Ed Rhone, auditor; Mrs. Jackson More, historian; and Elmer Moon, parliamentarian. Moon was presented with the past president's pin during the ceremony.

the auditorium of Torrance Elementary School. Plans for a pot luck supper to be held on their June 27th meeting in Torrance Park will be completed at this meeting, according to Mrs. L. Levinson, publicity chairman for the club. Den of the Pack will open the meeting. A skit will be presented by the girls in Dens 5 and 6. Mrs. Levinson announced that the Pack, which is sponsored by the Torrance Elementary PTA, will continue to meet all summer.

Two Local Men

Two soldiers from Torrance are attending the 5th Cavalry Regiment's Leadership School in Japan. They are: Cpl. Robert Pimental, whose aunt, Mrs. Gabriel Gonzales, lives at 1824 Prairie avenue, and Pfc. Hierashi C. Nishikawa, son of Mr. and Mrs. Yayozuchi Nishikawa, 1160 East 223rd street.

VACATIONERS—Aboard the Hawaiian Mainliner Stratocruiser Hana Nauri in a recent air-voyage to Hawaii were James Nicola, manager of the Torrance Lloyd Dennee store, and Ed Peters, Torrance resident and Dennee sales representative (1st and 2nd from left). Accompanied by Lloyd Dennee, owner of the chain of TV and appliance stores, they spent a week at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel under the auspices of Philco Radio Corp. Quoted by Press reporters on their return, the trio said, "Hawaii is almost as nice as Southern California."

Piastro to Conduct at Torrance Hi

Joseph Piastro will serve as guest-conductor when the Torrance Concert Orchestra presents its last concert of this year's series on June 6 in the Torrance High School auditorium, it was announced by Abe Milstein, the orchestra's regular conductor.

Mr. Piastro has had a rich musical life as a conductor, violin virtuoso, composer and teacher; he is also a recognized landscape artist. Piastro left Czarist Russia, where he had studied the violin and composition with famous musicians, and began his illustrious career in the musical capitals of Europe, Asia and America. Only recently he appeared in a tour of recitals in Chicago and the East where newspapers acclaimed his superb musicianship. Well known to radio audiences is his brother, Misha Piastro, director of the Longine Symphonette.

The orchestra will be augmented with top studio players to make this concert the most successful of any given by the orchestra in its four years of public concerts. The orchestra is sponsored by the Torrance School of Adult Education and all concerts are free to the public.

Laughton Stars On Guild Hour

Charles Laughton returns to "Theatre Guild On the Air" Sunday, May 25, to star with Josephine Hull and Vanessa Brown in the sprightly comedy, "The Bishop Misbehaves."

Heard via coast-to-coast stations of the NBC network at 5:30 p.m. (PDT), the U. S. Steel Hour presents Frederick Jackson's delightful tale of skulduggery with Laughton portraying the Bishop of Broadminster, a cleric with a penchant for detective stories. Confronted by a gang of thieves, the Bishop resorts to his only weapons; eloquence and charm.

Immortality Theme of Barnum Sermon

"It is recorded that Jesus rose from the dead and made Himself known to His immediate followers. The faith of countless millions of the Christian Religion has been based, to a great extent, on its teachings of immortality," states Dr. Earl Barnum, minister of the Church of Religious Science, referring to his Memorial Day sermon next Sunday. The church holds its service at the Masonic Temple, Ruby and Catalina Streets, in Redondo Beach, each Sunday at 10:45.

Play Festival At El Camino College Friday

Six schools will participate in the El Camino College annual Play Festival Friday, May 23, according to information released from the college.

Held each year, the play festival is a non-competitive affair in which high school students present plays and receive professional criticism on their efforts. The panel of critics this year will be Mr. Henry Schmitzler, of U. C. L. A. Theater Arts Dept.; Mr. Edgar Barrier, prominent character actor of screen and radio, and a third member to be announced. The panel moderator is Mr. Robert Kirk, of the El Camino faculty. Dr. John Butler of U. S. C. is the speaker of the evening.

Card Party at Parish Hall Friday Evening

Pinochle, bridge, canasta and 500 will be played in the Parish Hall of the Nativity Catholic Church tomorrow evening, May 23.

Under the sponsorship of the Holy Name Society the playing will start at 8 p. m. Refreshments will be served during the evening, according to Bob Lewellen, president of the Holy Name Society, and prizes will be awarded.
