

P-TA Officers Attend Meet
Mrs. Claud Hill, president of 156th Street P-T.A., and Mrs. James A. Gaulley, associate member and president of Gardena-Wilmington Council, attended the presidents' conference held at the First Presbyterian Church, San Pedro on Wednesday, June 4th, and the Tenth District meeting held at the Fairfax High School, Thursday, June 5th.

HILL AND DALE

Was kidnapped the other morning by Margaret Hagan just as I was taking the bacon and eggs off of the stove. You guessed it! She took a car load of us over to the W. S. C. S. kidnap breakfast at Betty Jean Cramer's on Los Cadenas. Ladies in all stages of dress were there. They hadn't even allowed some of the gals to put their shoes on.

next St. Margaret Mary's Guild meeting will be at Joan Hahn's on Winlock Drive the 7th of July.

Girl Scout troop 398 is having a dance at my home, 3333 Crickwood, Tuesday the 17th of June.

What a bang up time everybody had at the Pacific Hills Home Owners dance last Saturday night! There were 110 people in attendance. Vern Crumm, chairman of the Recreation committee, said that Bill Ritter took over the chair for him, and I'll bow all year to Bill on it. Working with Bill Ritter were Dorothy Ritter, Vern and Estelle Crumm, Bob Waegner and Mrs. J. Minter. Everyone pitched in to make the dance a big success. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Guenette won the door prize which was $10 in trade at Paramount Builders supply and Nursery. Well, when can we go again?

Wrists Slashed After Quarrel

A family quarrel Monday night ended in a distraught wife severely slashing her wrists.

Torrance Policemen Nolan Robison and John Hahn answered a disturbance call at 10:35 p.m. at 1860 Torrance boulevard and found Mrs. Mary E. Mal-dung, 22, bleeding profusely from deep gashes in her wrists, inflicted after an argument with her husband, Donald, 23.

There were thirty-four students in the graduating class last night at Waleria School. Each student had four tickets, and those seats were reserved until 8:15 p.m. Then the public was allowed to take the remaining seats. The school orchestra played until time for the graduating class to put on their ceremony. We are sure all thirty-four will do us proud!

The officers rushed Mrs. Mal-dung to Harbor General Hospital for treatment.
