P-TA Officers Installed At Year's Last Meeting

Installation of officers highlighted the last regular meeting of 186th Street P-TA held at the school on Thursday, June 12th at 2 P.M. The installing officer was Mrs. James A. Gauley, president of the Gardena-Wilmington Council and associate member of the 186th Street P-TA.

Mrs. Claud Hill, president reported on the recent P-T.A. State convention in San Francisco. A brief history of the year's activities was read by Mrs. Bill Davis. "Summer Camping" was the topic chosen by the speakers, Mr. Charles Chatman of the Gardena Y.M.C.A. and Mr. Robert Lyon, teacher. A film was shown of the Clear Creek camping trip, recently enjoyed by the A-6 pupils of 186th Street School. Tea and social hour followed in the teacher's room.

An executive board meeting at 1 p.m. preceded the general meeting.

Mrs. B. H. Cothran, press chairman, announced that the P-T.A. unit received an achievement award, a magazine award and state and district seals for the publicity record book.
