

VINCENT HOHMAN, brother of R. G. Hohman, one of the owners of Hohman and Hadenfeldt, Inc., Redondo Beach Pontiac distributors, recently joined the sales staff of that organization. A veteran of 24 years in the automotive business, Hohman was previously used car manager for McCollum Buick for two years. He is married and has eight children.

Two Suggested For Vacancies On Commissions

Two names were presented to the city council Tuesday night for appointment to vacancies existing on city commissions. Councilman Nick Drale recommended the appointment of Bob Owens to the Recreation Commission, and Mark Wright to the Civil Service Commission.

Set Trial Date

Not guilty was the plea entered last week by Maruo D. Apostol, 56, who was arrested recently on charges of possession of game cocks. According to Torrance Police Department records, 40 fighting birds were found on Apostol's farm at 182nd St. and Crenshaw Blvd. Court trial has been set for July 30 before City Judge Otto Willett.

Variety Store Opens Here

A complete new variety store recently opened in the "Miracle Corner" at Crenshaw and Torrance Blvds. Elkni's Variety Store will prove a boon to housewives shopping in the newly-opened Jim Dandy Market, because it is located in the same building. A complete line of regular variety store merchandise is on display now, according to owner

Louis Elkins. He and his wife bring with them into their new enterprise a great deal of experience in this field. They previously owned similar stores in Los Angeles, Santa Monica, and other suburban communities. Elkins pointed out that plenty of free parking space is available directly in front of the store.
