Slate Free Park Concert Each Sunday

Torrance Accordionettes will be featured in the first of a series of Sunday concerts to be held this Sunday afternoon beginning at 1:30 o'clock in Torrance Park Band Shell.

The band shell has been little used in the past, and the Torrance Recreation Commission is promoting greater use of this facility by arranging a series of free concerts beginning Sunday and lasting through the month of August, commission officials announced this week.

Picnic and children's playground facilities will be in use throughout the day.

Schedule of concerts is as follows: July 27, Bettie Thomas Torrance Accordionettes; August 3, Torrance Area Youth Band, Inc.; August 10, Ferraro Accordion Center; August 17, Melba Aires; and August 24, Crandells Dance Studio. The Torrance Barber Shop Quartet has been invited to appear on Sunday, August 31, the recreation commission announced.

Legion Seats New Officers Tuesday Night

Harry T. Green will be installed as the new commander of the Bert Crossland American Legion Post No. 170 Tuesday evening, July 29, at 8 o'clock, in the American Legion Hall, 1109 Border Ave.

The ceremony will be a joint installation of new officers in both the Legion and the Legion Auxiliary. Wilmington Legion Post will serve as installing officers.

Green, a World War I veteran, was unanimously elected last month to succeed Robert T. Faren.

Other Legion officers to be seated Tuesday include: Gordon Arnold and Ken Cunningham, vice-commanders; Vern Babcock, financial officer; Robert Ernst, adjutant; Dale Laskaris, sergeant-at-arms; C. J. "Paddy" Ryan, chaplain; Vern Coil, service officer; and Clarence Younken, historian.

Refreshments will be served after the ceremonies, club officials announced.

NEW ADDITION—to Torrance business section is the Better Living Food Plan of California. Located at 1624 Gramercy, the company offers frozen foods at wholesale cost, and displays a wide variety of frozen food lockers.

New Frozen-Food Plant Opens Here

One of the oldest firms in the home freezer-food plan business recently opened its 33rd store in a nation-wide chain here in Torrance.

M. M. Makie, manager of the Better Living Plan of California located at 1624 Gramercy Avenue, states in discussing the modern wholesale food buying system, that many hundreds of dollars each year can be saved by local housewives if they use the scientific miracle of quick-freezing foods. In addition, he continues, through the Better Living Plan all frozen food items can be purchased at wholesale cost, by simply joining the plan.

Four popular brands of freezers are on display now at the new store: Revco, Chill Chest, Jordan, and Sub-Zero.

New Parents Get Chamber Greeting Card

The Torrance Chamber of Commerce is planning to revive their practice of sending congratulatory greetings to the parents of new infants born in this city, according to Dale Isenberg, executive secretary of the Chamber.

The attractive, glossy folders will carry the personal greeting of the mayor of the city, Isenberg disclosed.

Returning Torrance servicemen will be in for greetings, too. A special folder designed to welcome the veterans home is being designed now, Isenberg said. The new Miss Torrance has tentatively agreed to pose for a cover picture for the new greeting card, he stated.
