

Carnival Set at Sepulveda Park

Avalon-Sepulveda Park is staging its annual Community Carnival August 9 and 10, at the park with the event sponsored by the park Recreation Advisory Council and the county department of parks and recreation.

Mrs. Dorothy Kemper, park director, said various civic and service clubs in the community will operate concession booths and a professional company is providing the rides and games for the carnival.

Amaranth Slates Card Party Here

Lomita Court No. 61, Order of Amaranth, will hold the third in a series of card parties at Torrance Masonic Temple, 1321 1/2 Sartori Avenue, on Saturday, August 16, at 8 p.m.

There will be a grand prize awarded for the highest cumulative score, and individual table prizes also, club officials disclosed. Refreshments will be served, and the public is invited, it was announced.

Goodwill Industries needs truck drivers. For information, call CAPitol 2-5131.

Bibee Speaks at Religious Science Church Service

In the absence of Mr. Barnum, who is now vacationing, Mr. Adrien Bibee will take the pulpit at the Church of Religious Science on Sunday. He has chosen as the subject of his sermon, "Divine Guidance in Daily Living." With reference to his sermon, Mr. Bibee states: "There is only one Mind, that Mind is God and that Mind is our Mind, therefore, we are eternally led into right action, because Divine Mind makes no mistakes."

Services of the Church of Religious Science are held at the Masonic Temple, Ruby Street and Catalina Avenue in Redondo Beach, each Sunday, beginning at 10:45 a.m. with a 15-minute healing and meditation period and organ music by MacDonald Scott.

Handicapped people want to work. Goodwill Industries gives them a chance by collecting discarded for them to repair and re-finish. Sales of these discards pay their wages.

Cooperate with your Fire Department. Check your home for fire hazards. And call a Goodwill truck, CAPitol 2-5131, to pick up your discarded clothing, rags, furniture, toys, shoes, etc.

Torrance Co-op Nursery School Parents to Meet

Parents forming the Torrance Cooperative Nursery School will hold their next meeting Tuesday, August 12th, 8 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Cahow, 804 Maple Ave., corner of Maple and Maricopa.

Committees will report their progress on securing a director, incorporating the group, and selecting a desirable location. The goal is to begin a full nursery school program with the beginning of the regular school term this September. Mrs. Cahow states, "There is only one Mind, that Mind is God and that Mind is our Mind, therefore, we are eternally led into right action, because Divine Mind makes no mistakes."

SPEBSQSA Stages Family Song Night Here

Members of the Torrance Chapter SPEBSQSA entertained their wives at Family Night, last Friday at the Betty Thomas Studio. Al Ewalt served as Master of Ceremonies, and Bud Bartholomew led the community singing, according to Howard McDonald, press chairman for the song group. Guests at the event were the Twenty-four Feet of Harmony of the Inglewood Chapter SPEBSQSA, McDonald said.

Torrance group will appear at the Long Beach Recreation program this evening at Bixby Park. A future appearance of the local SPEBSQSA is slated on September 20th at Torrance High School. Several outstanding ensembles from Torrance will appear on this Parade Quartets, McDonald disclosed.

A family picnic event will be held in conjunction with the forthcoming appearance of the chapter at Torrance Recreation Park.

ary chairman, reports that the group is rapidly reaching its maximum of 25 children enrollees. This limitation of size is for practical working purposes only. The group is open to all interested parents, and full information may be had by phoning Torrance 2834-J or Torrance 2157-J.

All organizational work is progressing at a good pace, and members are having an interesting and informative time resolving their problems. Mr. and Mrs. Hattem have given valuable guidance from experience gained in other cooperative nursery schools, according to Mrs. Cahow.

Marriage Topic Of Talk Thursday

"Why leave the happiness of the marriage relationship to guess work, when with intelligent guidance, a great many of the disturbing factors in a marriage may be dissolved," says Mrs. Ival Robertson, marriage Counselor on the staff of the Compton Counseling Service.

"Marital Responsiveness" is the title of the lecture to be given Thursday evening, August 7th at 7:30 P.M. It will be held at 1317 East Golden Avenue, Compton.

Mrs. Robertson, who is also a registered nurse, will lead the women's group. Paul Stauffer, also a marriage Counselor, will lead the men's group.

TRAFFIC CONTROL—If a huge voice booms at you some Saturday as you drive downtown, telling you to slow down or to stop for some pedestrian, don't jump through the roof of your car. It is Torrance Police Sgt. Bill Evans directing traffic with a complicated looking megaphone. Between this type of direction and the new center parking strip on Cabrillo Ave., traffic has moved more smoothly in the downtown area recently, Sgt. Evans said.

Methodist Church Slates Vacation Bible Classes

A two-week daily vacation Bible school will be conducted at the First Methodist Church, officials revealed today.

Children who will enter kindergarten next month through children in the seventh grade are eligible for the classes.

Classes will begin each day at 9:30 a.m., ending at 11:30 a.m., beginning August 11, according to Mr. A. Ransom, church school superintendent. Mr. Foster is chairman of the school.

Lutheran Church Holds Communion Service Sunday

Holy Communion will be celebrated at two services at First Lutheran Church on Sunday, August 10, first at the 10:45 morning service and again at a special vesper service at 6:30 p.m. Sunday school will be held at the regular times of 9:30 and 10:45, and the first morning worship will be at 9:30.

War Mothers Hold Meet Wednesday

The local chapter of the American War Mothers will hold its regular semi-monthly meeting at 8 p.m., Wednesday evening, August 13, in the Torrance City Hall. Officers are urged to be present, according to Mrs. J. E. King, press chairman.

The chapter has members from Torrance, Walteria, Lomita, Harbor City, Keystone, and adjacent districts. Any mother who has had a son in service at any time since 1941 is eligible for membership.

One of the main projects of the organization is providing aid for hospitalized vets, Mrs. King disclosed. Anyone who can aid the chapter with this work is urged to join the club.
